faculty

hail, graduates of the class of 1960!

You may well consider yourselves Beach High's "old guard." Certainly you are bringing to a close an important chapter in the school's history. Since our school is being relocated to a new site, yours is the pride of the past, the sense of fulfillment, the promise of the future.

In the "old" building, with its beauty and charm, has been transmitted long established traditions of a great school. May these traditions remain in your keeping, for great and beautiful as the setting is, the things of the Spirit are infinitely more precious.

Never more meaningful than the lines of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes:

"Build these more stately mansions, O My Soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low vaulted past!
Let each new temple nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

Like the humble mollusk that lives inside its shell, the human being must also continuously move on, must grow and expand. Each man is responsible for his own development; each man is the architect of his own character.

As in Holmes' analogy of the growing nautilus in its ship of pearl, moving from one "chambered cell" to the next, stretching, expanding, so may it be with the soul of each graduate of the '60 class: Build ever more stately mansions!

With affectionate best wishes,
Irvin W. Katz, Principal

As Coordinator of Student Activities, Mrs. Rash is responsible for the smooth functioning of all school affairs. Under her capable direction, the Student Council acts as a student government and leader in school affairs and projects.

Since communication is vital to further the progress of civilization, every Beachite must take four years of English. The English Department, while preparing students for college and life, helps to broaden their cultural background and inspires in them a desire to acquire more knowledge. This is done by means of the carefully planned courses, consisting of a study of literature, mythology, grammar, vocabulary and written and oral expression. Students at Beach High look forward to English class because varied courses and good instruction make the subject extremely interesting.

Since the launching of Sputnik, mathematics has become one of the most important subjects in the school curriculum. Although only two years of math are required for graduation, many students take additional courses to meet college entrance requirements or to prepare for their chosen vocation. The math department at Beach High is molding students into mathematicians which the United States vitally needs.

The Language Department offers Beachites three languages—Latin, French, and Spanish. In these courses students attain a greater understanding of other countries by learning the language as a key to the culture. A study of languages in high school often inspires students to become linguists, archaeologists or diplomats. At Beach High, the language teachers encourage proficiency by awarding a medal to the top students in each year of a language and a gold medal to the best all around language student.

psychology

Students obtain an introduction to the problems which effect their fellow men by taking an introductory course in Psychology. There a student is exposed to everyday problems and their possible solutions. Although our Psychology Department is only a year old, it is well on its way to helping the student understand himself.

social studies department

In the Social Studies courses, which are offered on each grade level, students attain a knowledge and an understanding of geographic, economic, political, and social trends and problems on the local, state, national, and international levels. Teachers encourage class discussion of history—past, present, and future—teach pupils to profit from the past history, and instill in the students a desire to fulfill their obligations to the American Society.

parent-teacher association

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association are always willing to lend Beach High a helping hand in the supply room and the clinic. As a member of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, our P.T.A. is responsible for promoting adult interest in school functions. Its functions are guided by four aims, the furthering of the welfare of children in the home and community, the raising of standards of home life, securing high plateaus of training, and the unification of the efforts of the teacher and the public to obtain advantages in all phases of education. The P.T.A. is an integral and indispensable part of our school life.

Cooperation of this nature resulted in the air-conditioning of the auditorium of the new Miami Beach High School.

the last full measure of devotion . . .

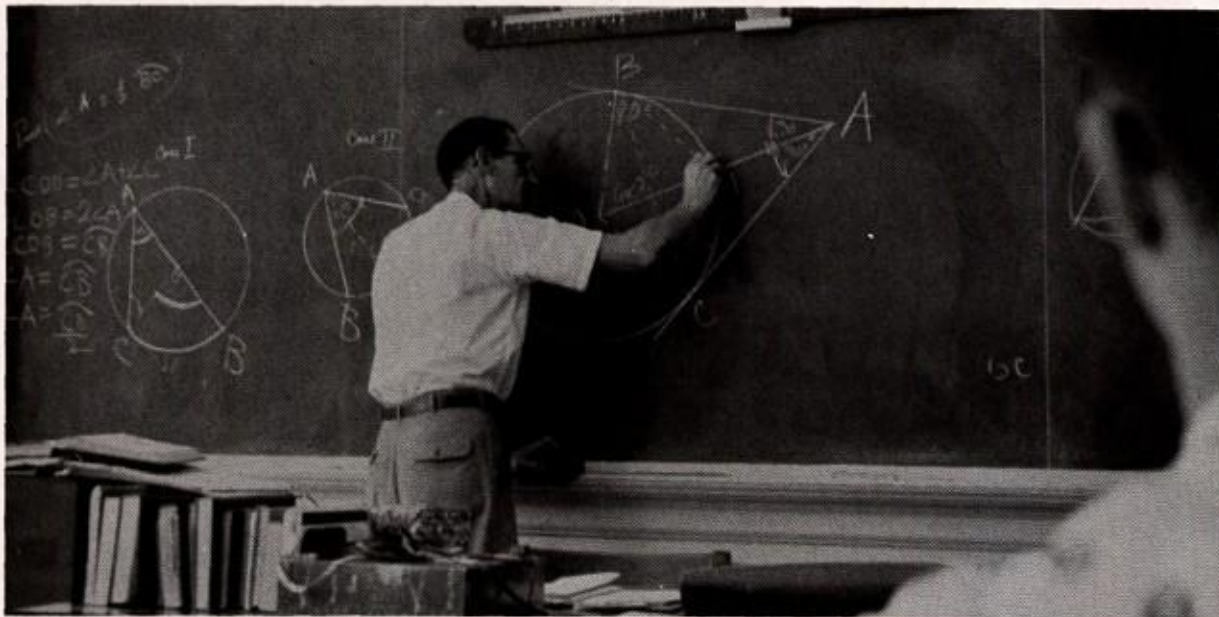

Dear Mr. Drummond,

It is a pretense on our part to attempt to capture the significance of thirty-seven years of teaching by the dedication of this book, but we, the Senior Class of 1960, have few vehicles with which to express our sentiments. We have chosen this opportunity to thank you for the gifts of inspiration and knowledge which you have afforded us. In according you this honor, we have honored ourselves beyond true worthiness. Neither words nor pictures can adequately illustrate the simplicity, the character, and the intensity that has distinguished you among teachers. It has not gone unnoticed; you are an individual to be remembered fondly by those of us fortunate to have known you and to have studied under you. Having you as a fellow graduate has enhanced our class. We Seniors shall graduate with distinction, for we were the ones to have received your last full measure of devotion.

In gratitude and sincerity,
The Senior Class of 1960

As an excellent conversationalist, Mr. Drummond holds the attention of his audience whenever he speaks.

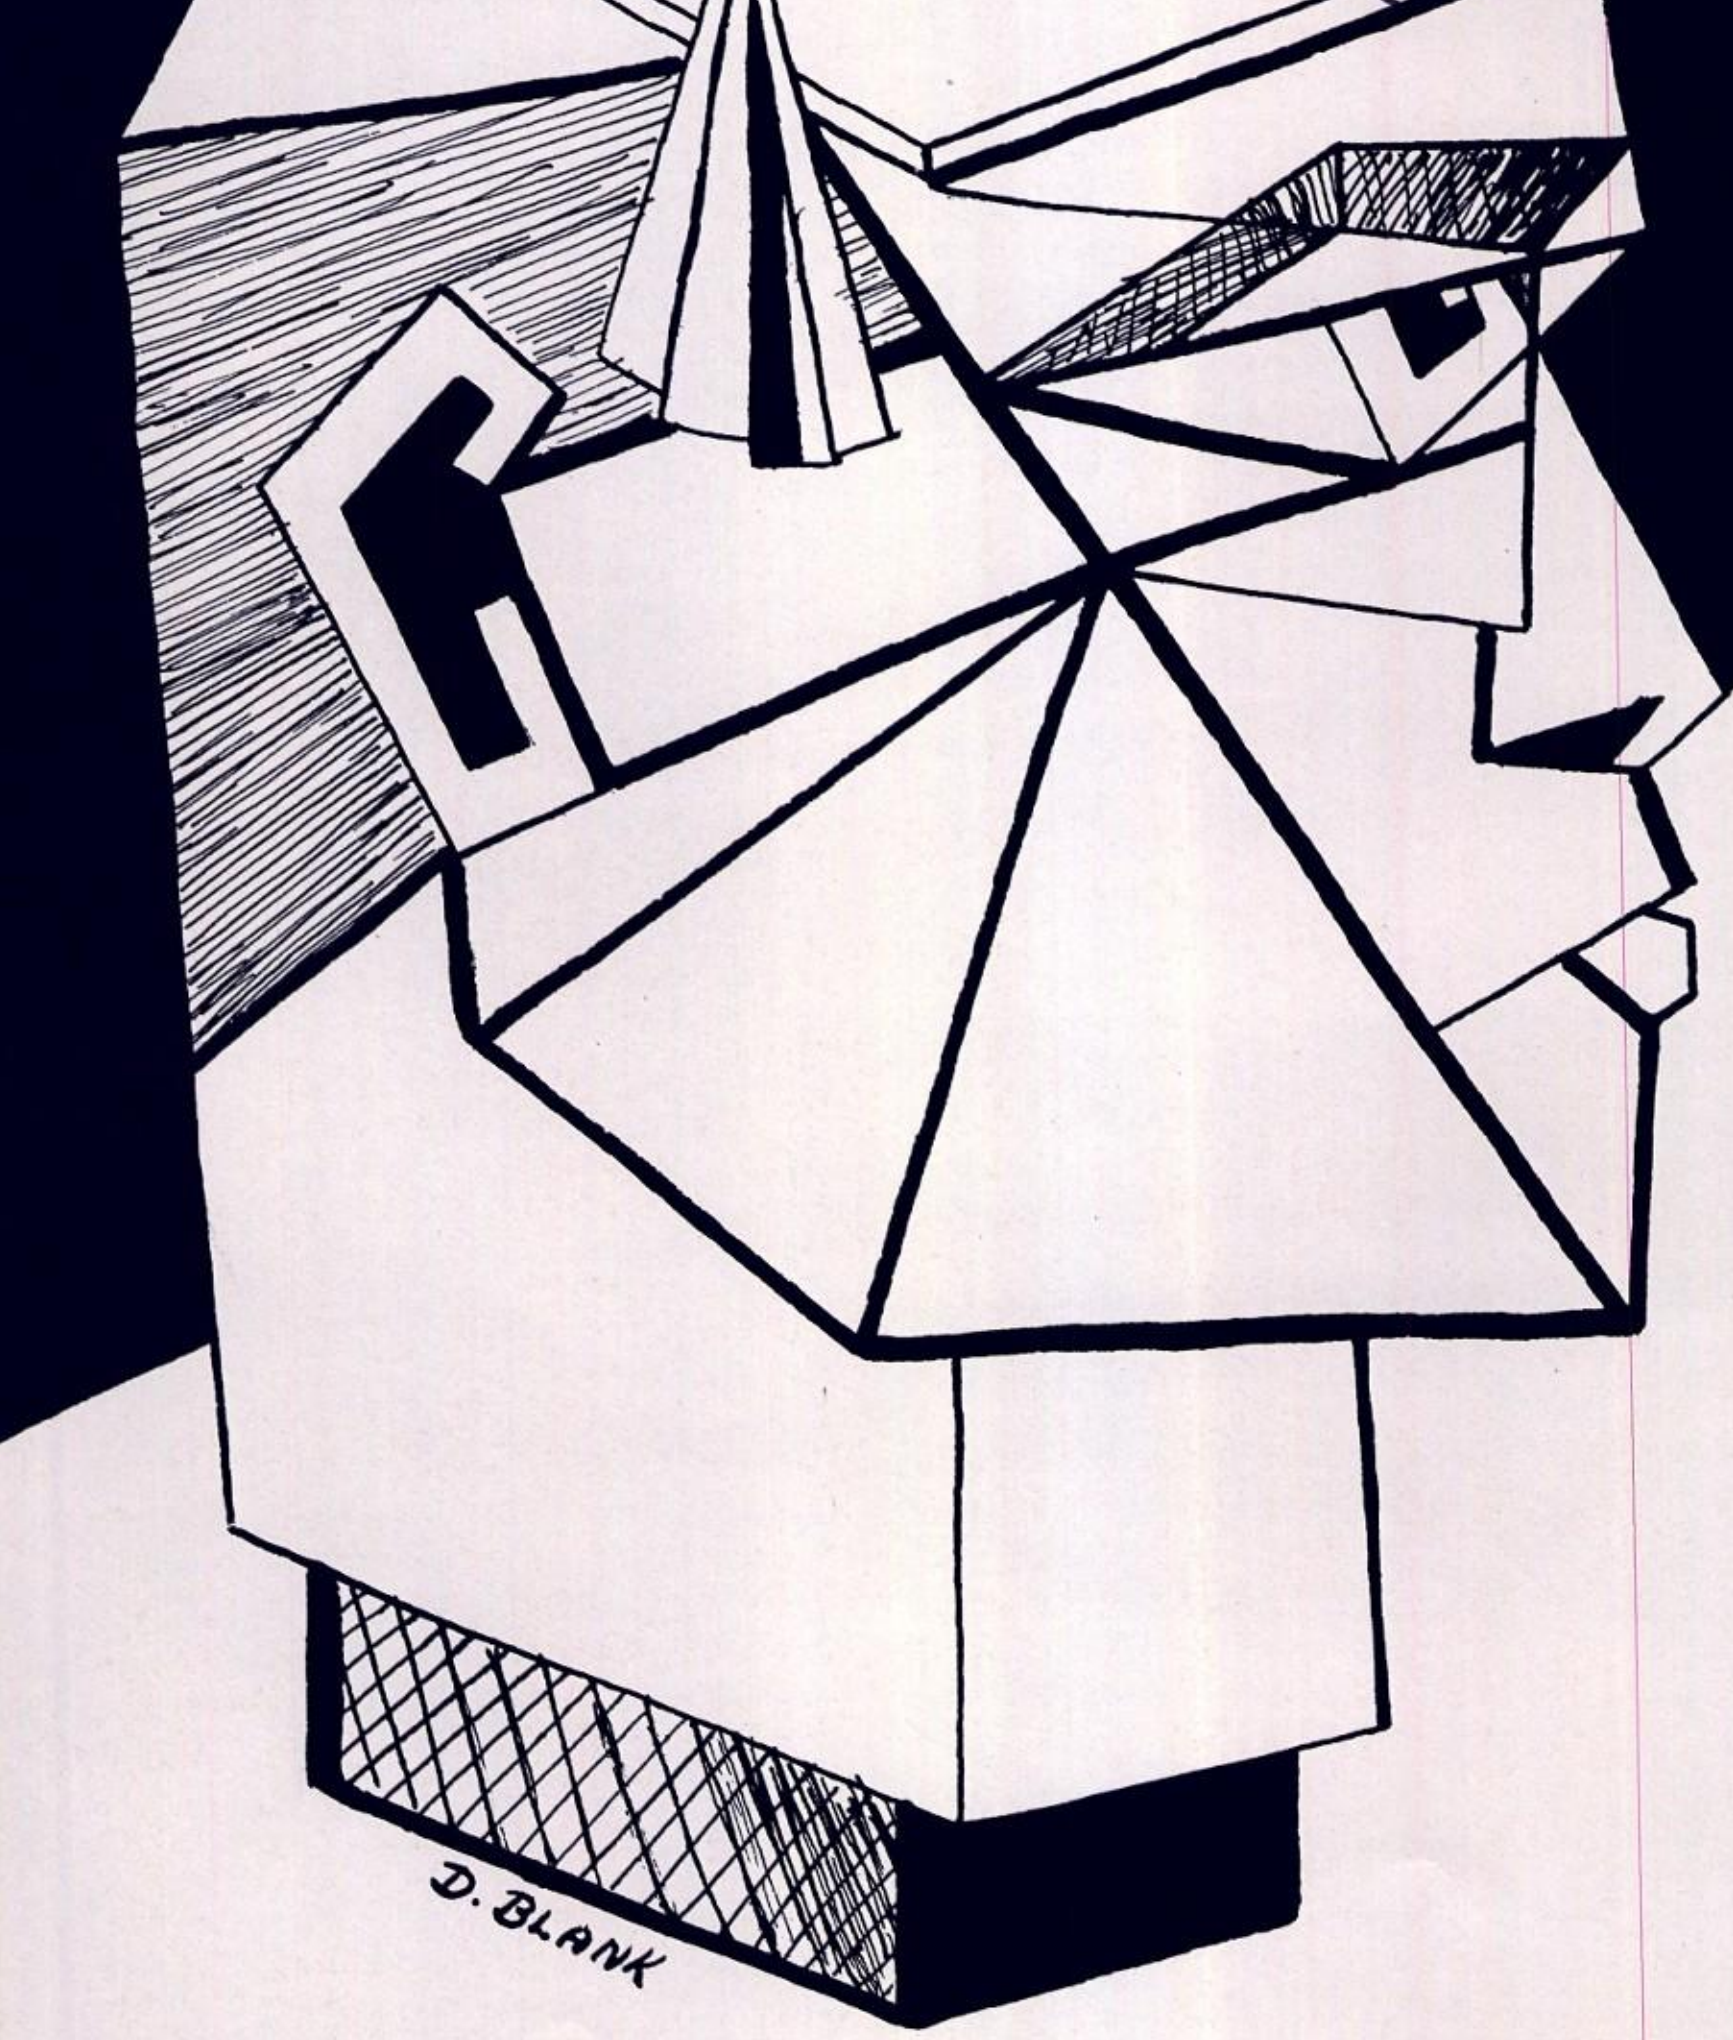

Students marvel at the exactitude and perfection in any of Mr. Drummond's undertakings.

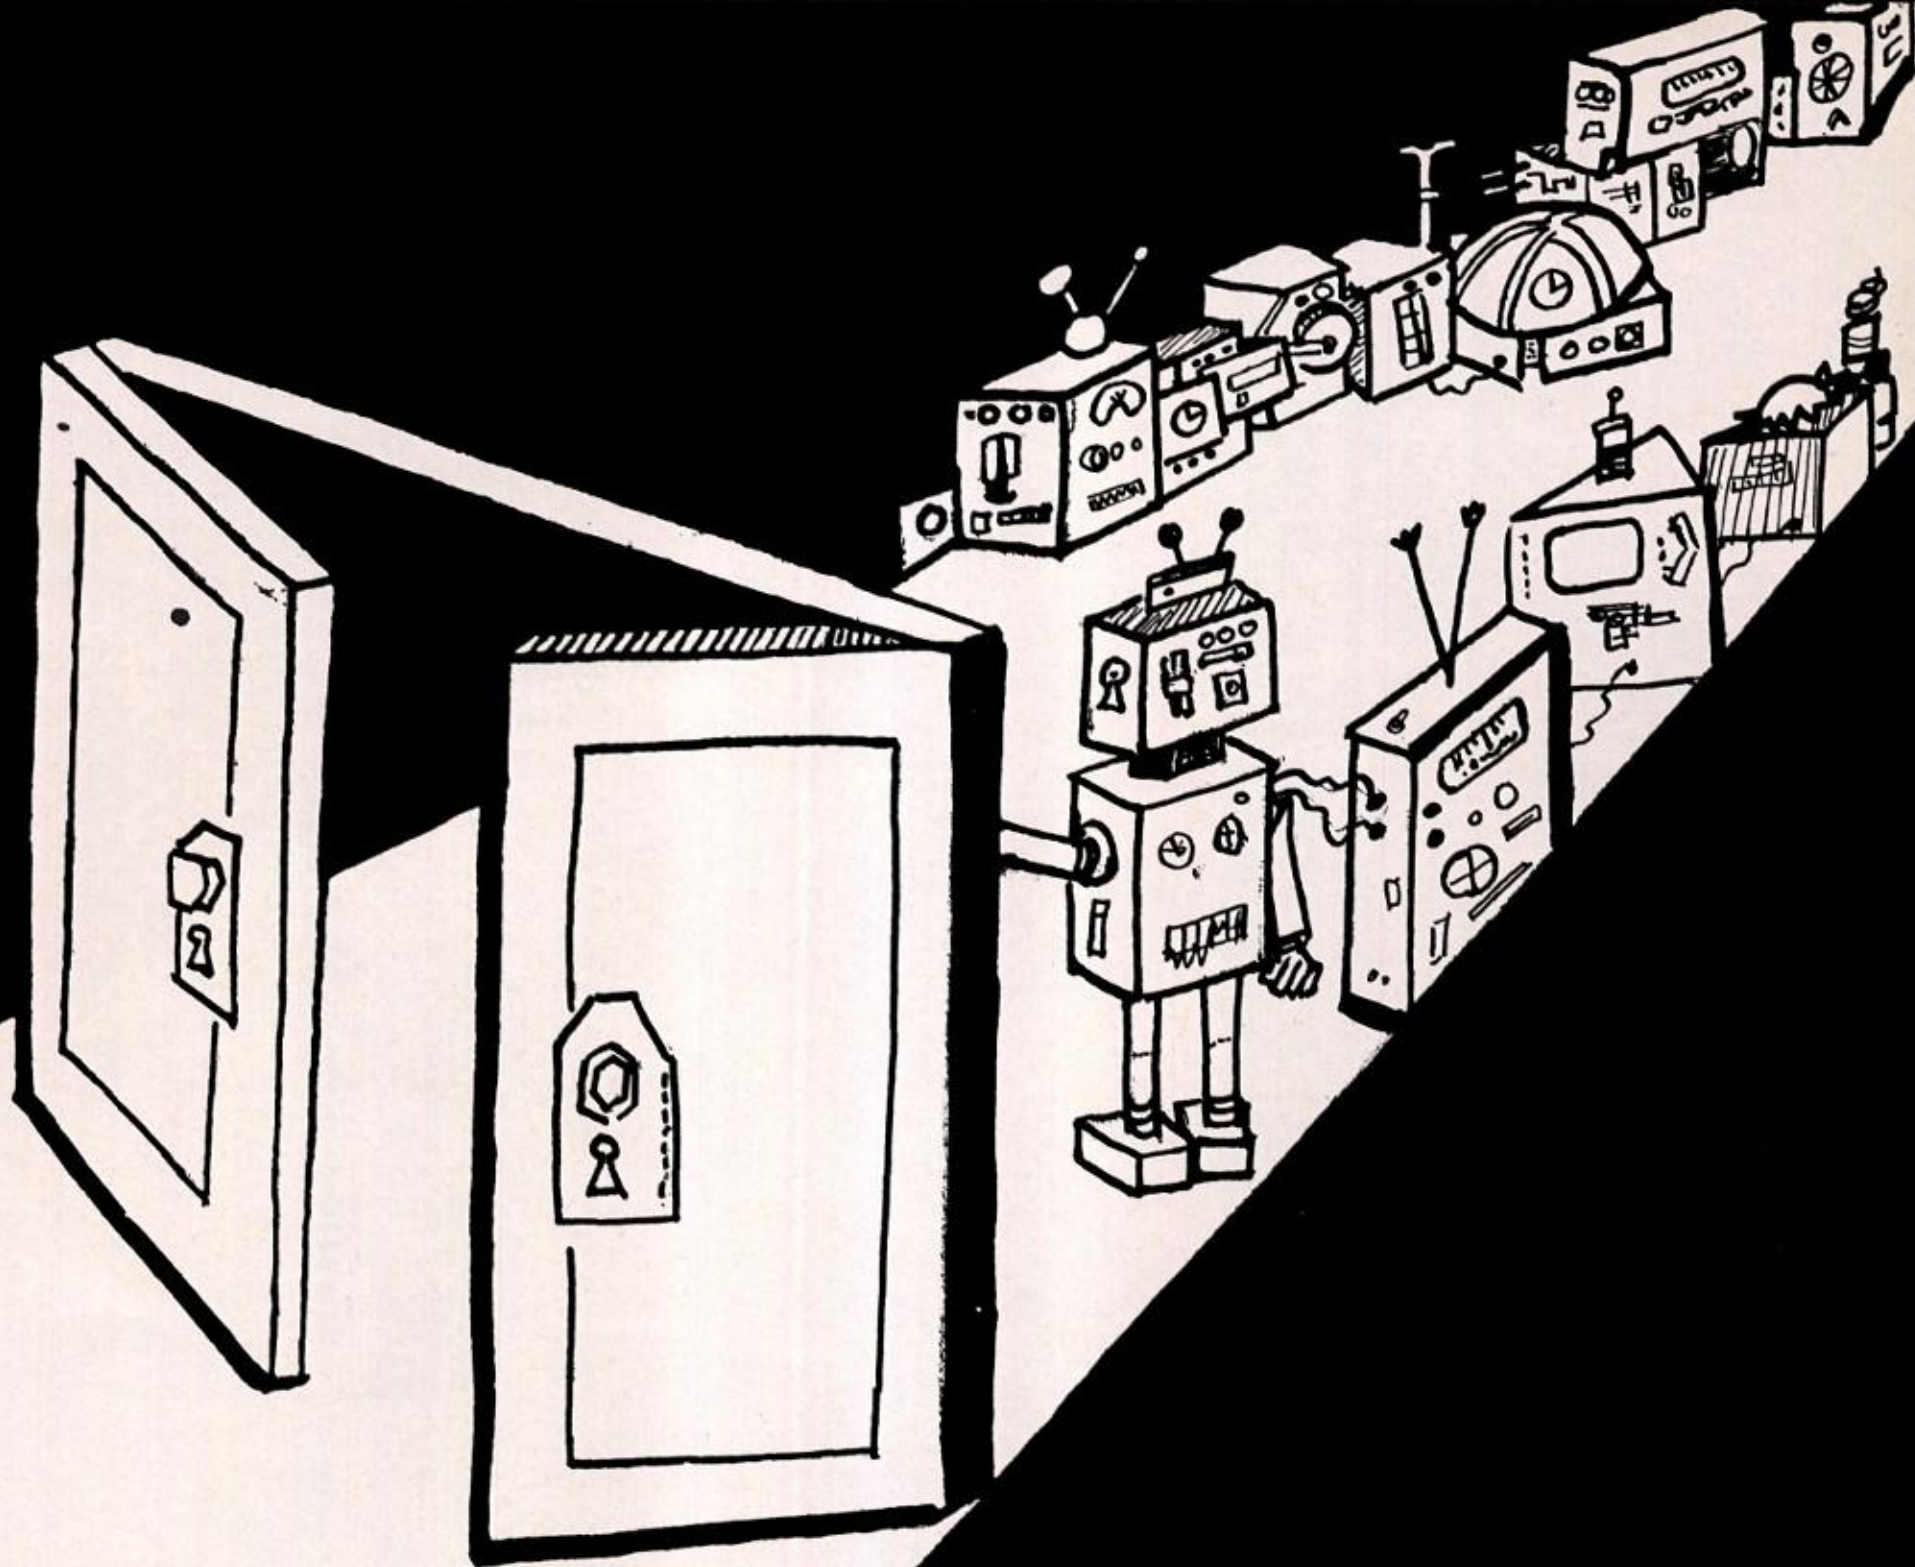

He is also held in great esteem by his co-workers.

who's who!

Famous Façades include those of Elaine Pascal, Bart Ostroff, and The Dingy.

These Esoteric Esthetes are our "ultra-poetical, super-aesthetical, out-of-the-way" Martha Alpert and Warren Spiller.

Ostensibly Olympic Cookie Schwartz and Norm Roskin "relax, just relax" on a swing.

"Most Most" Margie Goldberg and Marty Minsker go "round and round."

The cat sits.
The bat flits.
The Knits-Wits . . .
Fran Justa and Harvey Heller

Cook a bourgeoise ragout?

WHO?

Become entangled in a ball of yarn?

WHO?

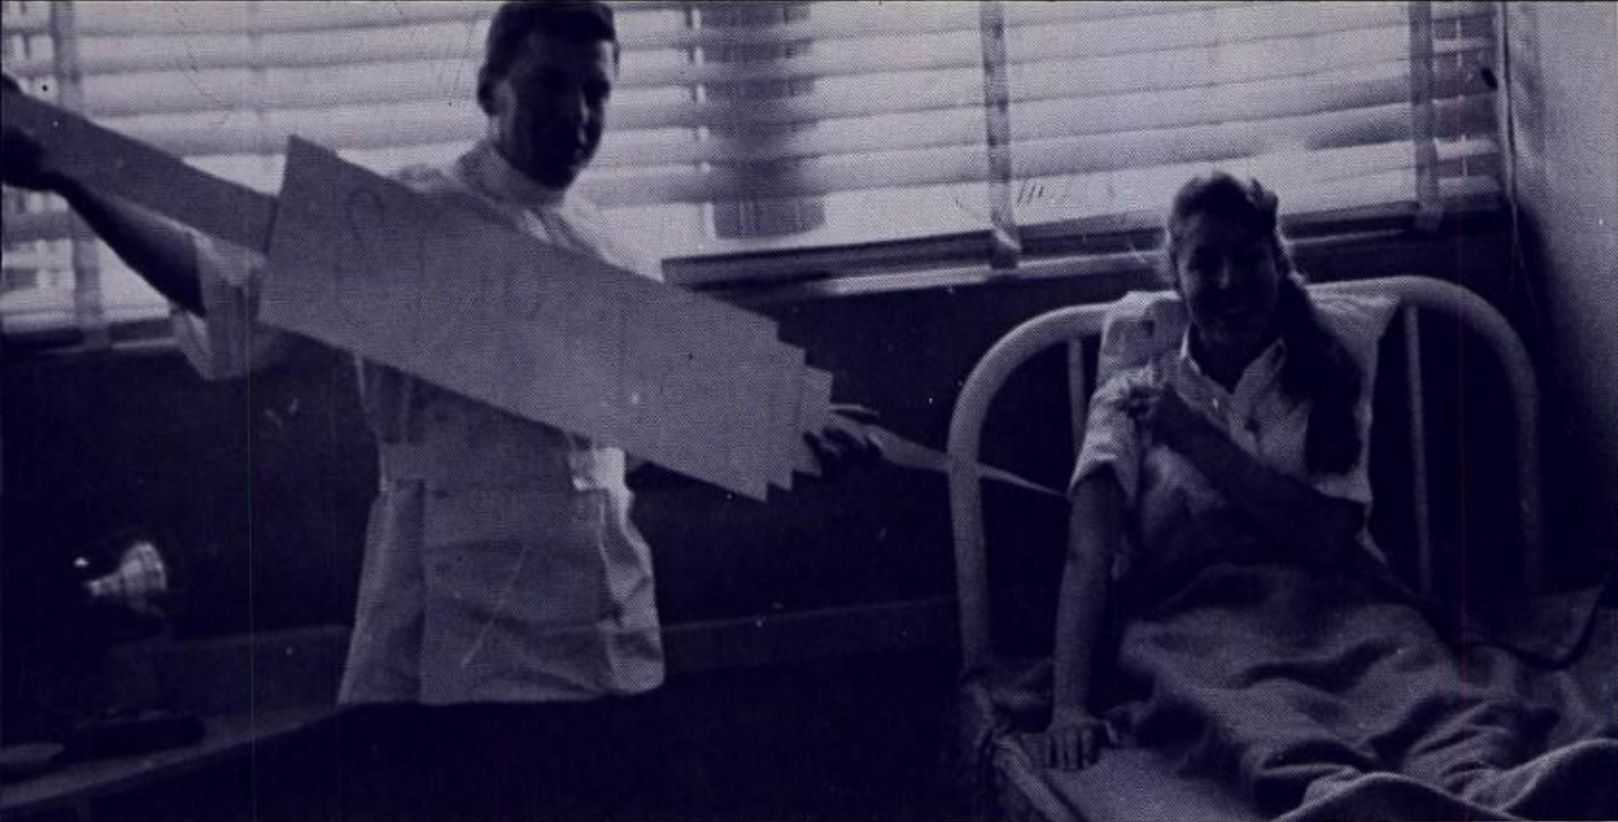

Light a cigarette with a thousand dollar bill?

WHO? WHO?

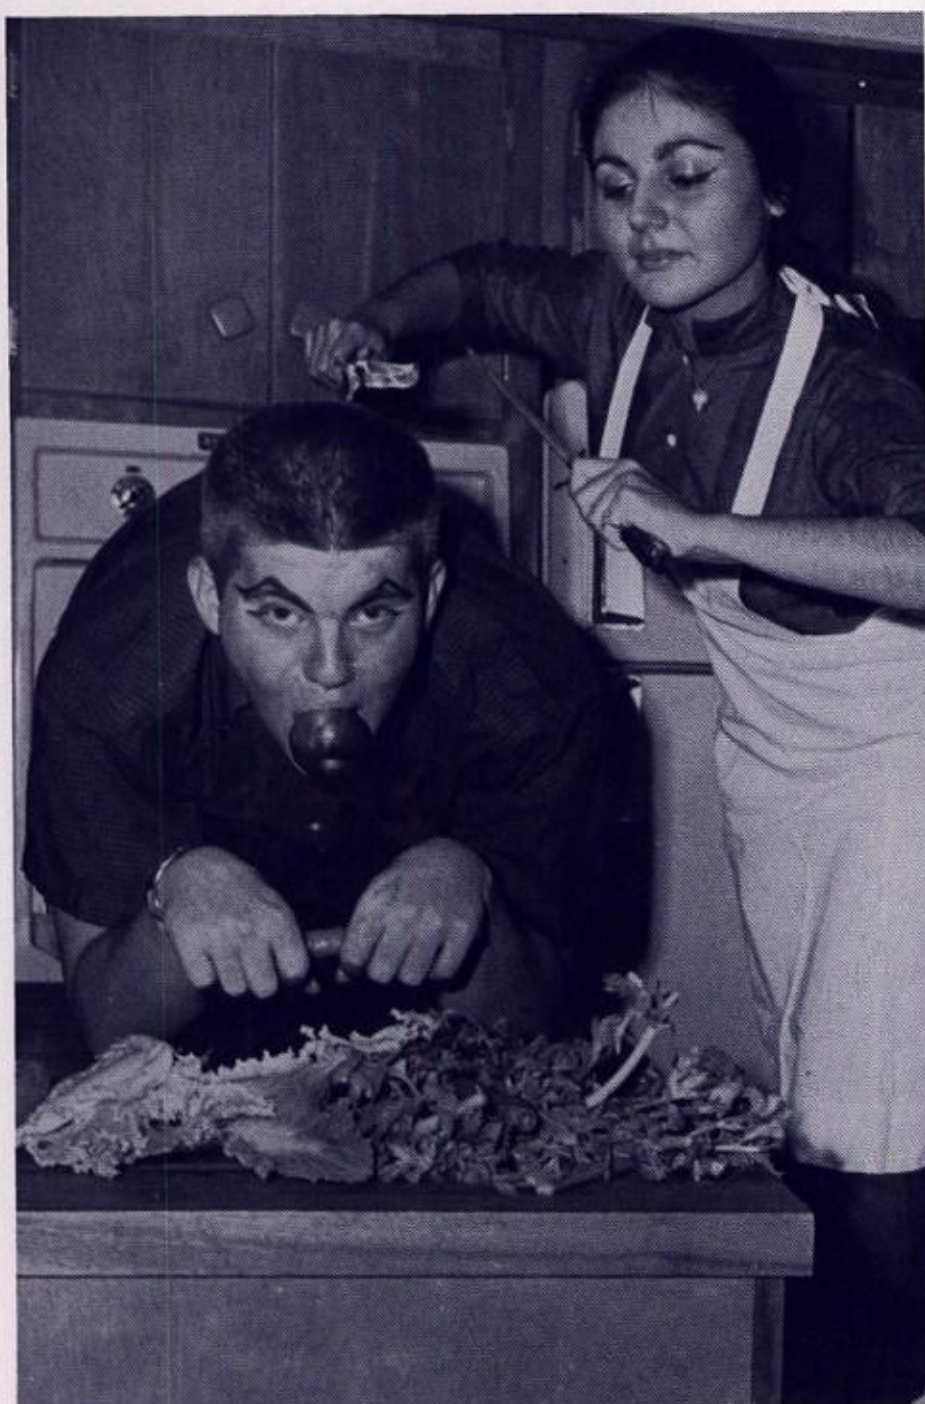

Why, the 1960 Senior Class WHO'S WHO, of course!

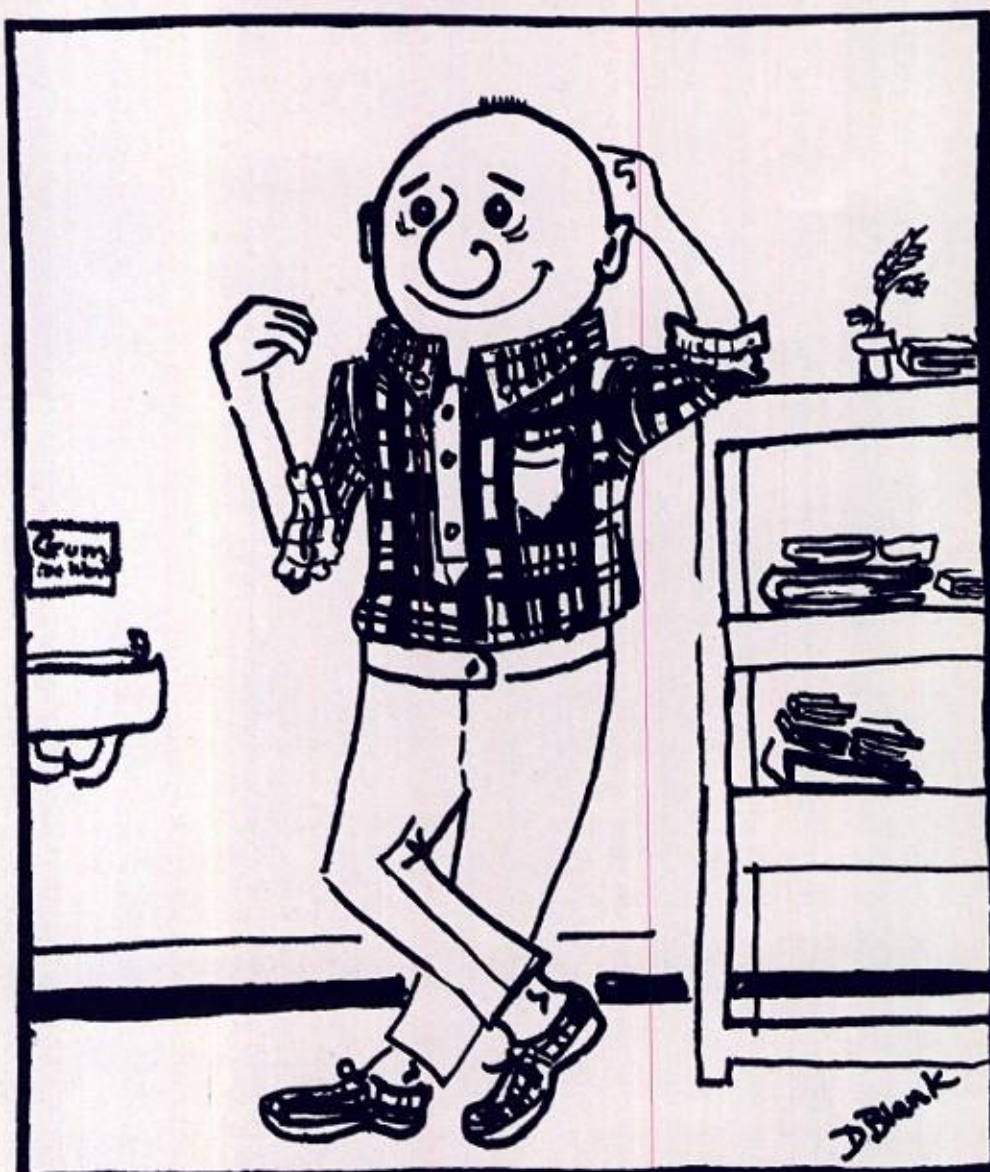

Will Success Spoil Martha Alpert and Neal Sonnett?

Boosters Number Two and Three, Nina Brisker and Denis Russ . . .
No, Denis, she doesn't need boosting!

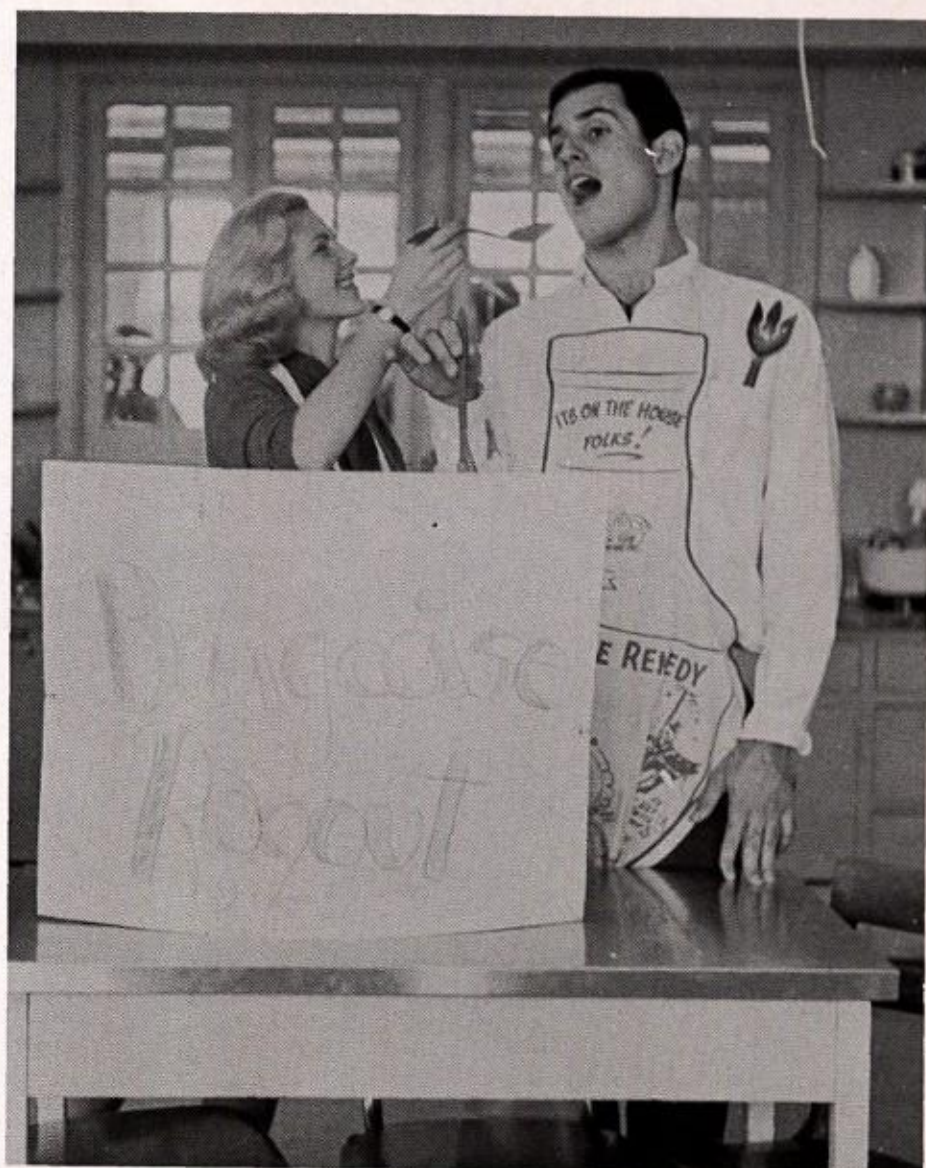

"The Ham What Am," Neal Sonnett, is being deftly carved by his rival and cohort, Adrienne Green.

Best Dressed?? Why, natch—a Beach High nebbish, of course!

Greatly Gregarious Fred Lane and Margie Goldberg pay each other humble accolades.

Les Chefs de la Bourgeoise, Elaine Pascal and Harvey Heller, sample their tasty cuisine, Bourgeois Ragout.

Through their many noisome activities, Joan Peretz and Charles Horner have earned for themselves the title—Biggest Bothers.

mirror

Outstanding members of the Senior Class are honored annually by their inclusion in the MIRROR. These people have demonstrated initiative, industry, talent, leadership, and scholarship in their various contributions to school life. The cream of the crop of club presidents, "unsung heroes," publications editors, high school intelligentsia, and others, who have made our Class of 1960 a memorable one, are found in this section.

FRED LANE

Six feet two inches of integrity—that's Fred Lane. He's the quiet type that gets things done without fanfare. Fred isn't too big for any undertaking.

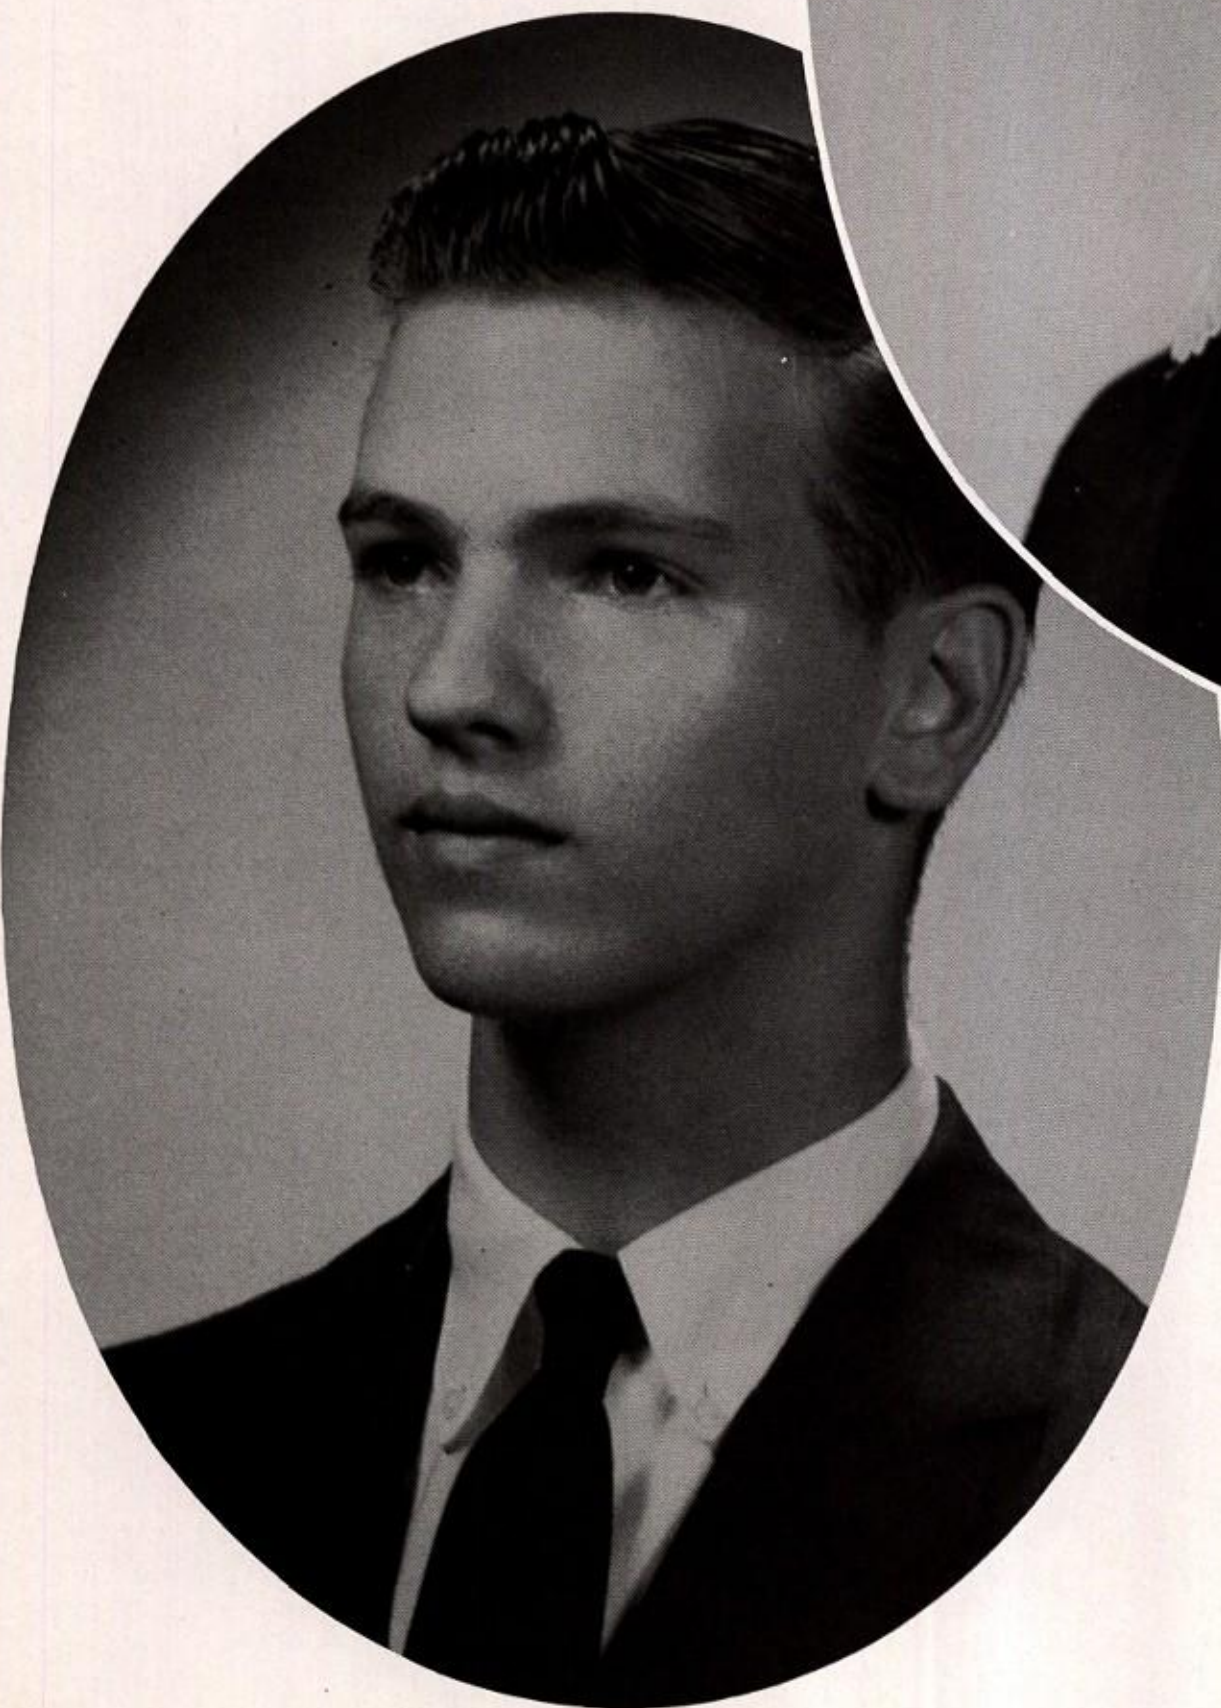

LEA BUSSEY

The persevering spirit necessary for producing any school publication is found two-fold in Lea. As Co-Editor of the Beachcomber, she has burned the midnight oil to produce her award winning paper. To a Number One Unsung Hero, we sing our praises!

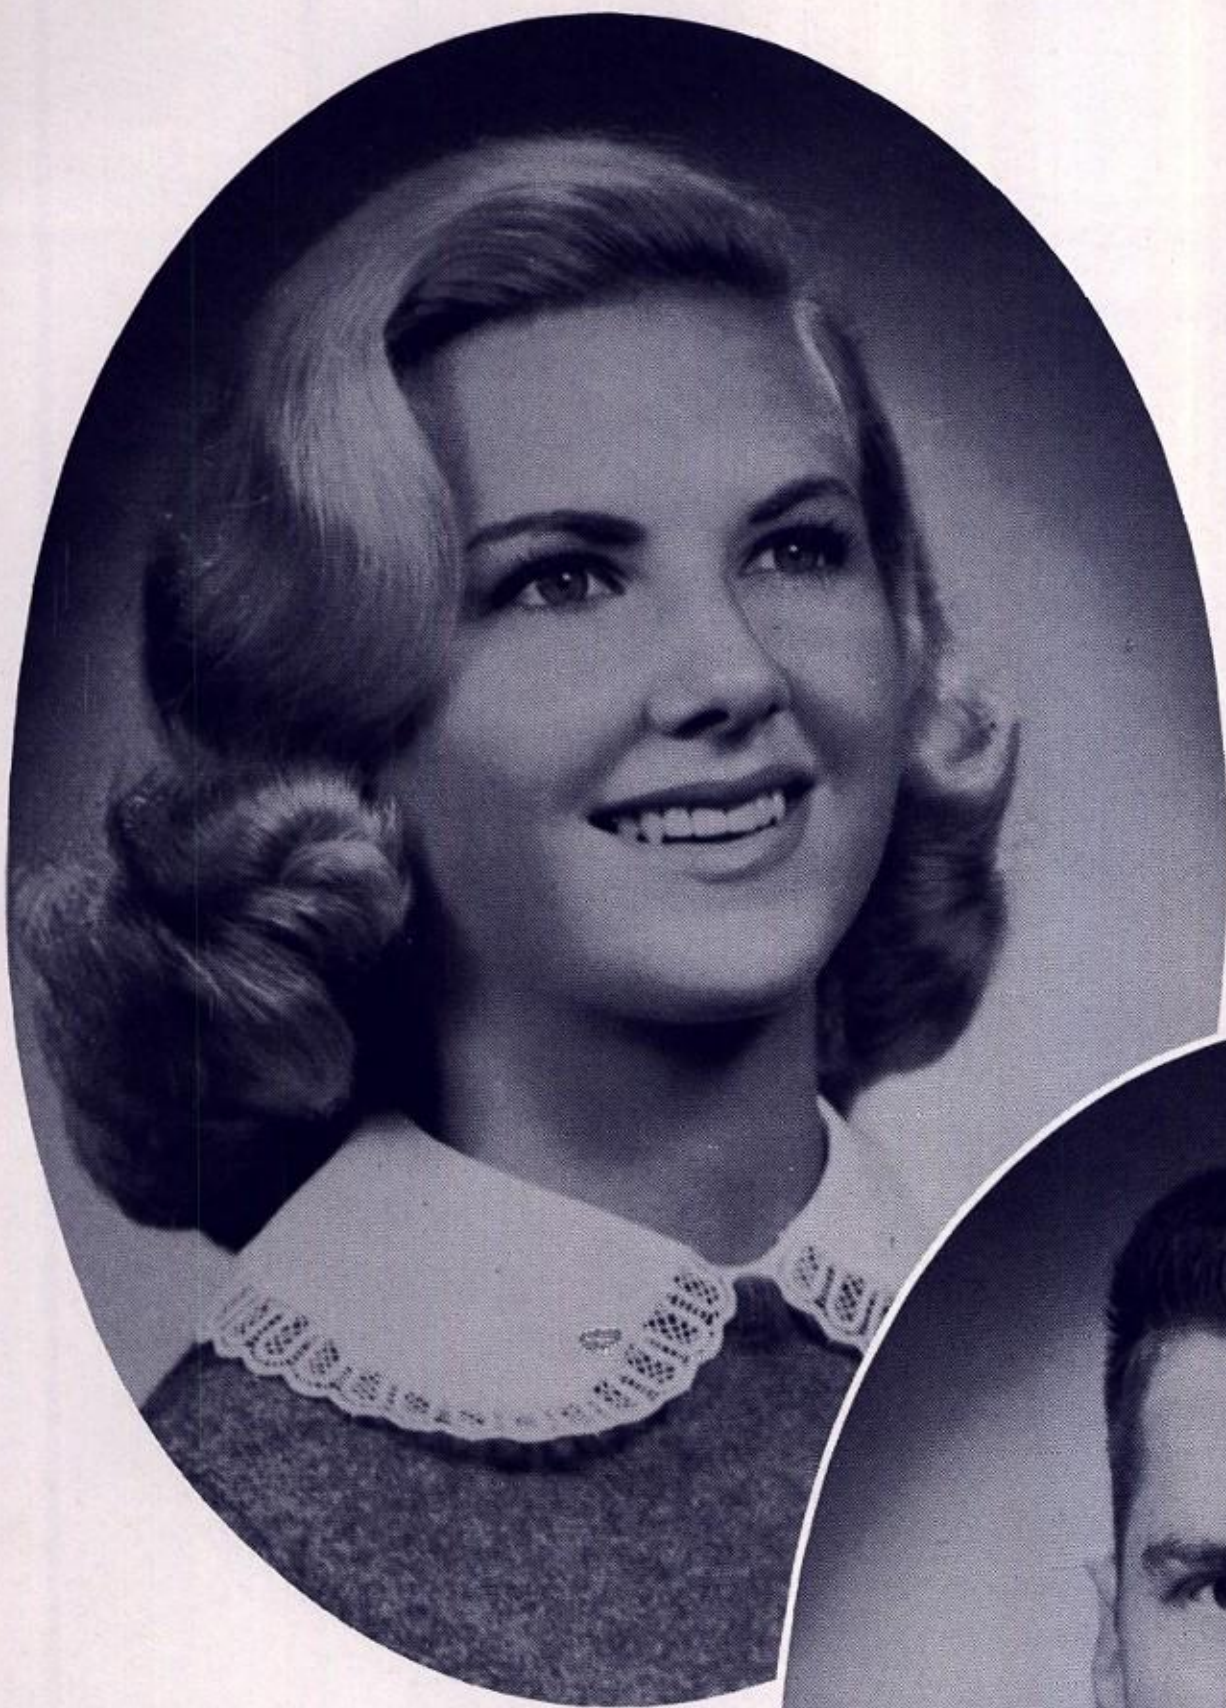

DIANA BLANK

The sincerity and responsibility intrinsic in Diana have led her to fame among Beachites. Her artistic talents have enhanced curtains, newspapers, posters and yearbooks. Thank you, Diana, for the creativity so generously given to Beach.

LEWIS SERBIN

What unfortunate class hasn't experienced the pompous speeches of this well-known orator! Lewis uses brains and personality to win his audience.

ELAINE PASCAL

Glamour, charm, talent, personality, are the active ingredients for Elaine's well-earned success. School-wide recognition is too extensive to enumerate—Elaine has entered into all phases of school activity. Few will forget the genuine interest in others that Elaine has generated.

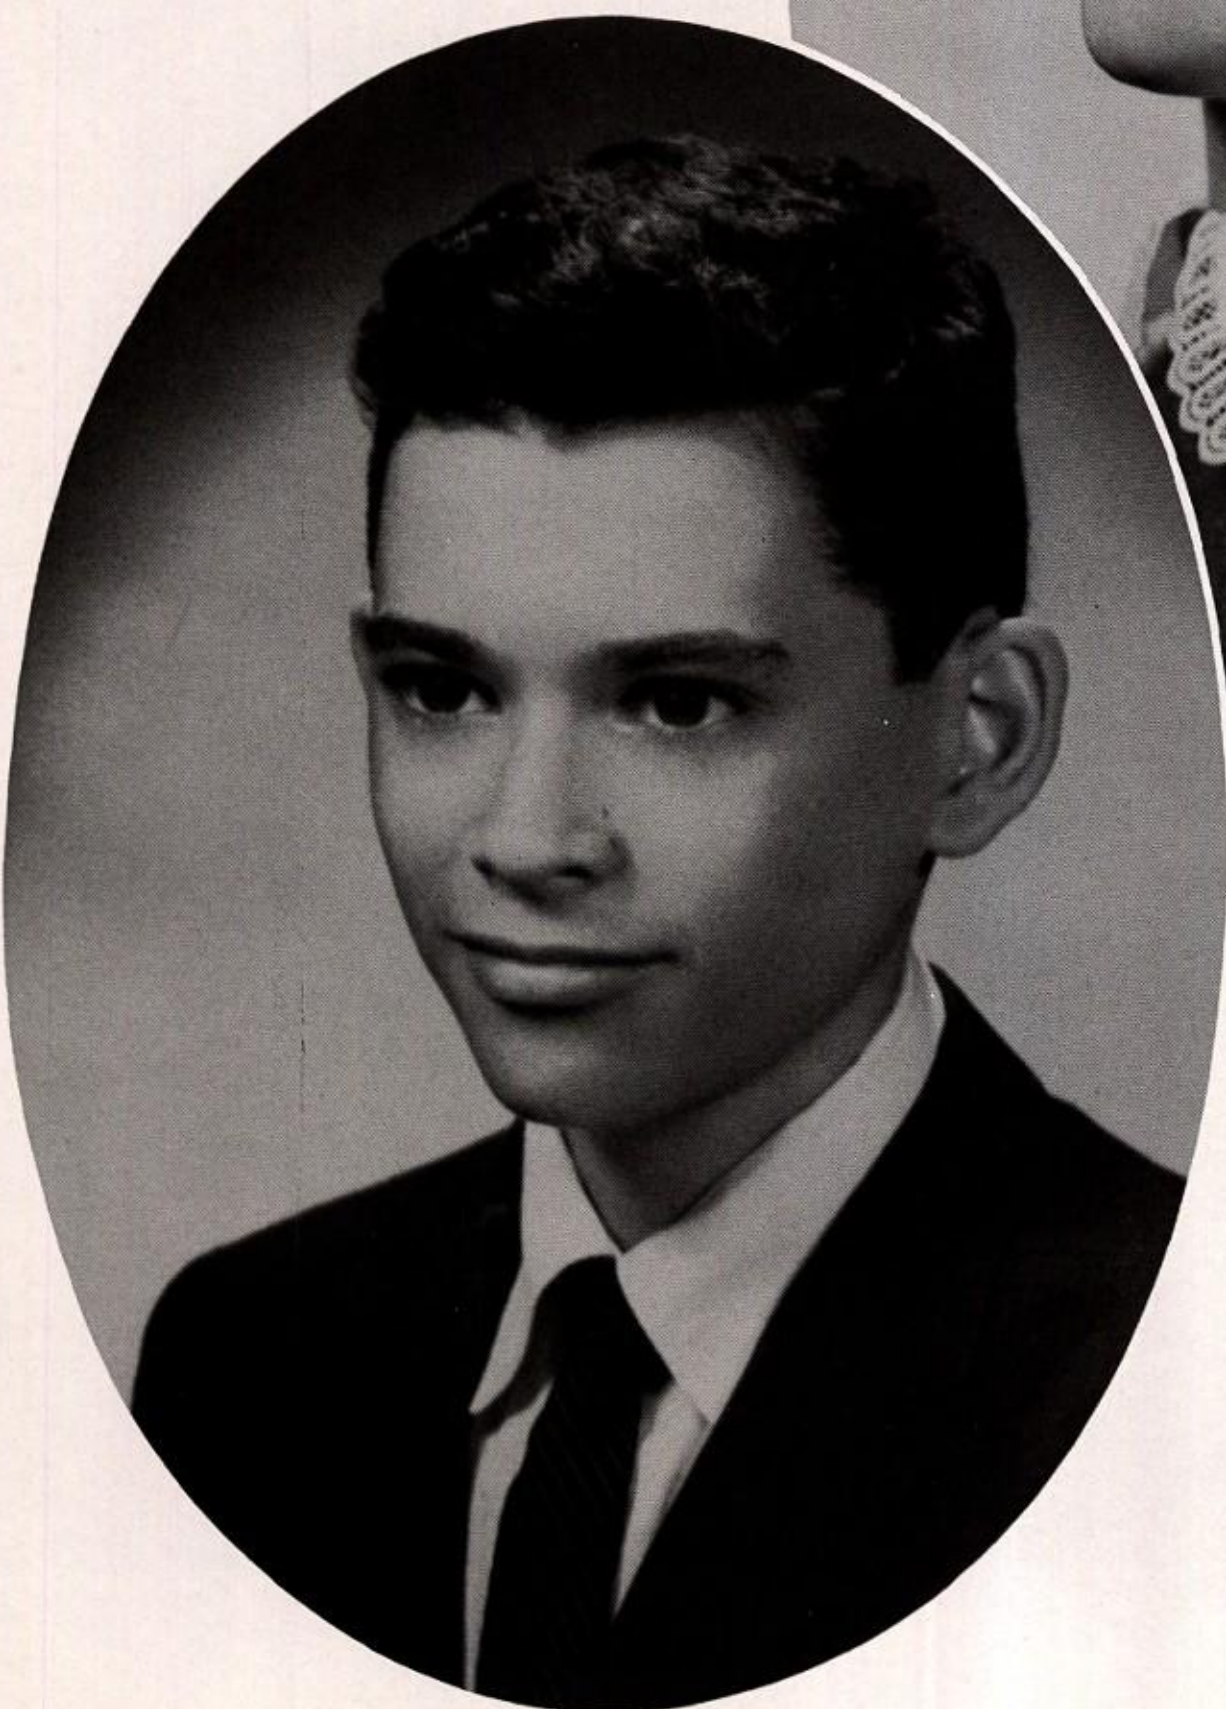

DENIS RUSS

His gregarious character has won recognition for Denis as president of the Student Council. As one pleasant to be with and anxious to help, Denis will be one Beach High celebrity long remembered.

ADRIENNE GREEN

Beach's histrionic marvel has successfully danced her way into our hearts this year. In bubbling mirth, she has livened the lives of many. "A lotta brains, a lotta talent"—that's Ady!

WARREN SPILLER

Good things come in little packages, and Warren is one of the best parcels to hit Beach High. Strong leadership and readiness to accept responsibility make him a good man on any team.

LEAH POLLER

With her natural talent for organization, creativity, and incentive to achieve the highest goals, Leah, not only has maintained a high scholastic average throughout four years of high school, but also has proved, as this yearbook will attest, one of the best Typhoon editors. As a leader she has aided her fellow classmates towards demanding of themselves better achievement in their classwork and a stronger sense of loyalty to their school.

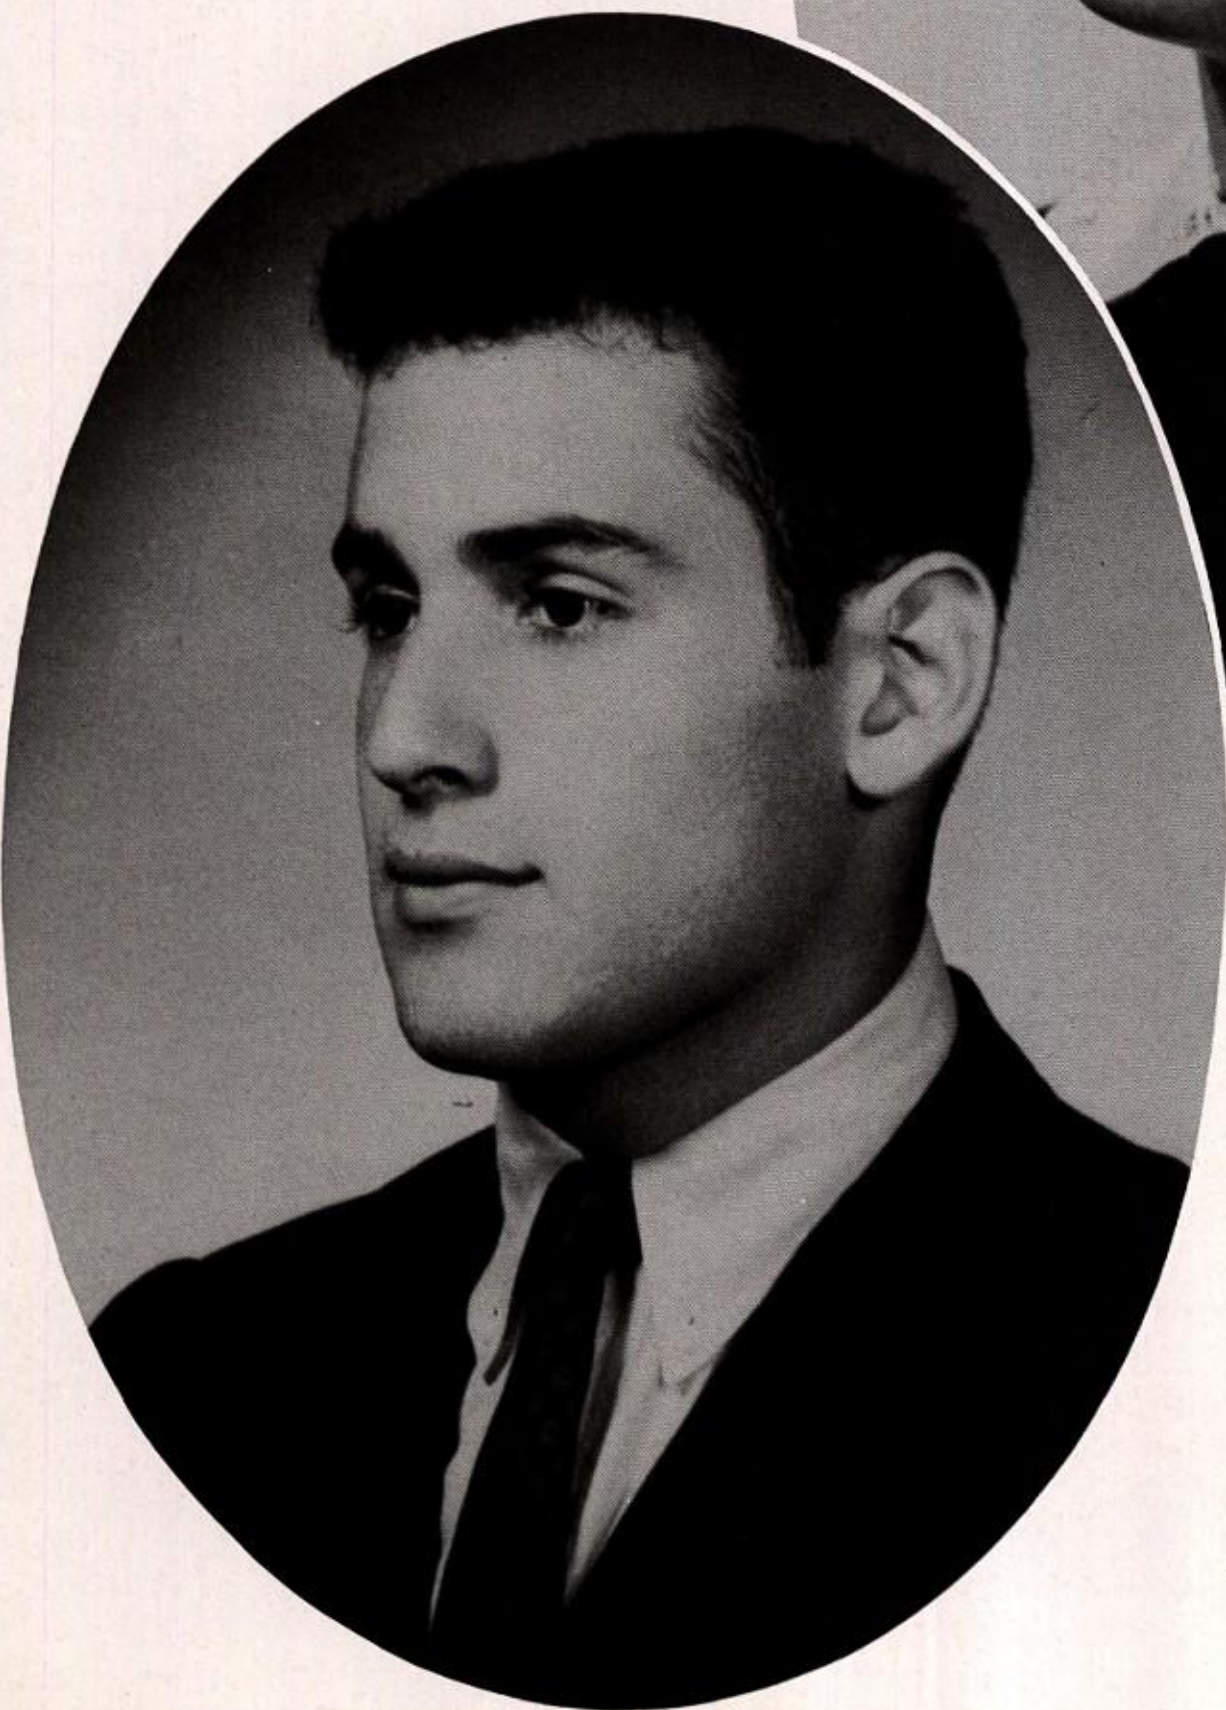

NINA DEUTSCH

Hidden behind Nina's quiet composure exists an intense adult possessing miraculous musical abilities. Her quick wit and profound intelligence are adequate tools for a sure-to-be successful future.

PATRICIA STALLINGS

One of the most responsible girls in school, Pat handles her many Herculean tasks with calm competence. She is one person upon whom both friends and teachers can depend.

HARVEY HELLER

Harvey, our true wit, has distinguished himself by being "all-around." Debate, athletics, service club—name it, and Harvey was in it doing his best!

VICKI OLECK

Inspiring editorials in the Beachcomber, contributing to the improvement of our Alma Mater, have spotlighted Vicki. A questioning mind and a pleasing personality topped with a sincere desire to do well assure Vicki a successful future.

TONI EVINS

With the quiet drive that accomplishes things, Toni has reflected herself as patience personified. So mild, so earnest, this talented "jeune fille" has always offered her best—the very best.

IRA TURNER

A quiet, serious boy, Ira has worked diligently towards high goals throughout high school. His precise nature has made him an earnest mathematician and an outstanding science major whose "stick-to-itiveness" will facilitate his future success.

NINA BRISKER

With the energy of a dynamo, Nina has cheered Beach High to victory. Spirit abounds where Nina is found, and in her light tread are imaged fine traits of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

thespian play

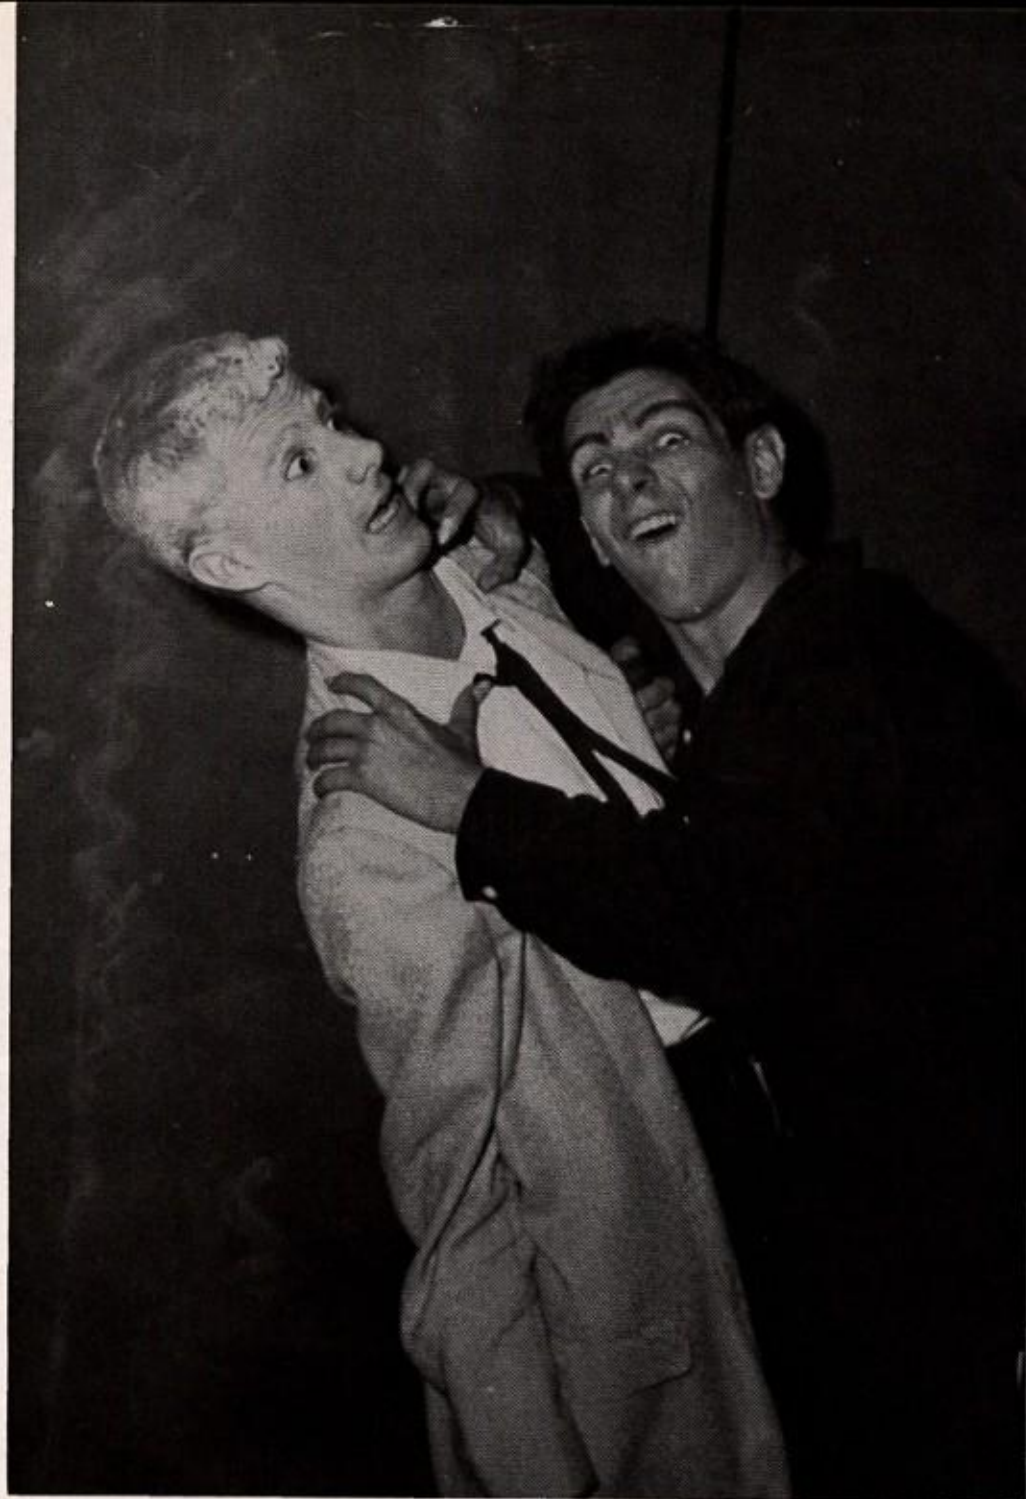

Bob Platchorn, preparing for his role as Dr. Van Helsing, deftly applies his theatrical grease paint.

In keeping with Halloween weekend, Thespian Troupe 391 presented the granddaddy of horror plays, Dracula. This ghoulish drama, adapted from a novel by Brian Stoker, relates the story of a bloodsucking fiend from Transylvania, Count Dracula, who has come to haunt the lives of Dr. Seward, his daughter Lucy, and the rest of the Seward household. The vampire, who has stalked the earth for 300 years quenching his insatiable thirst with human blood, meets his nemesis in the persons of Lucy, the beautiful girl who is Dracula's latest victim, and Dr. Van Helsing, the astute consultant of Dr. Seward. Among the added attractions were Rienfield, a fly-eating maniac; Dracula, a black cat; and a coffin procured from Hellman's Funeral Home. The actors were rewarded by shrieks of terror and stories of horrendous nightmares.

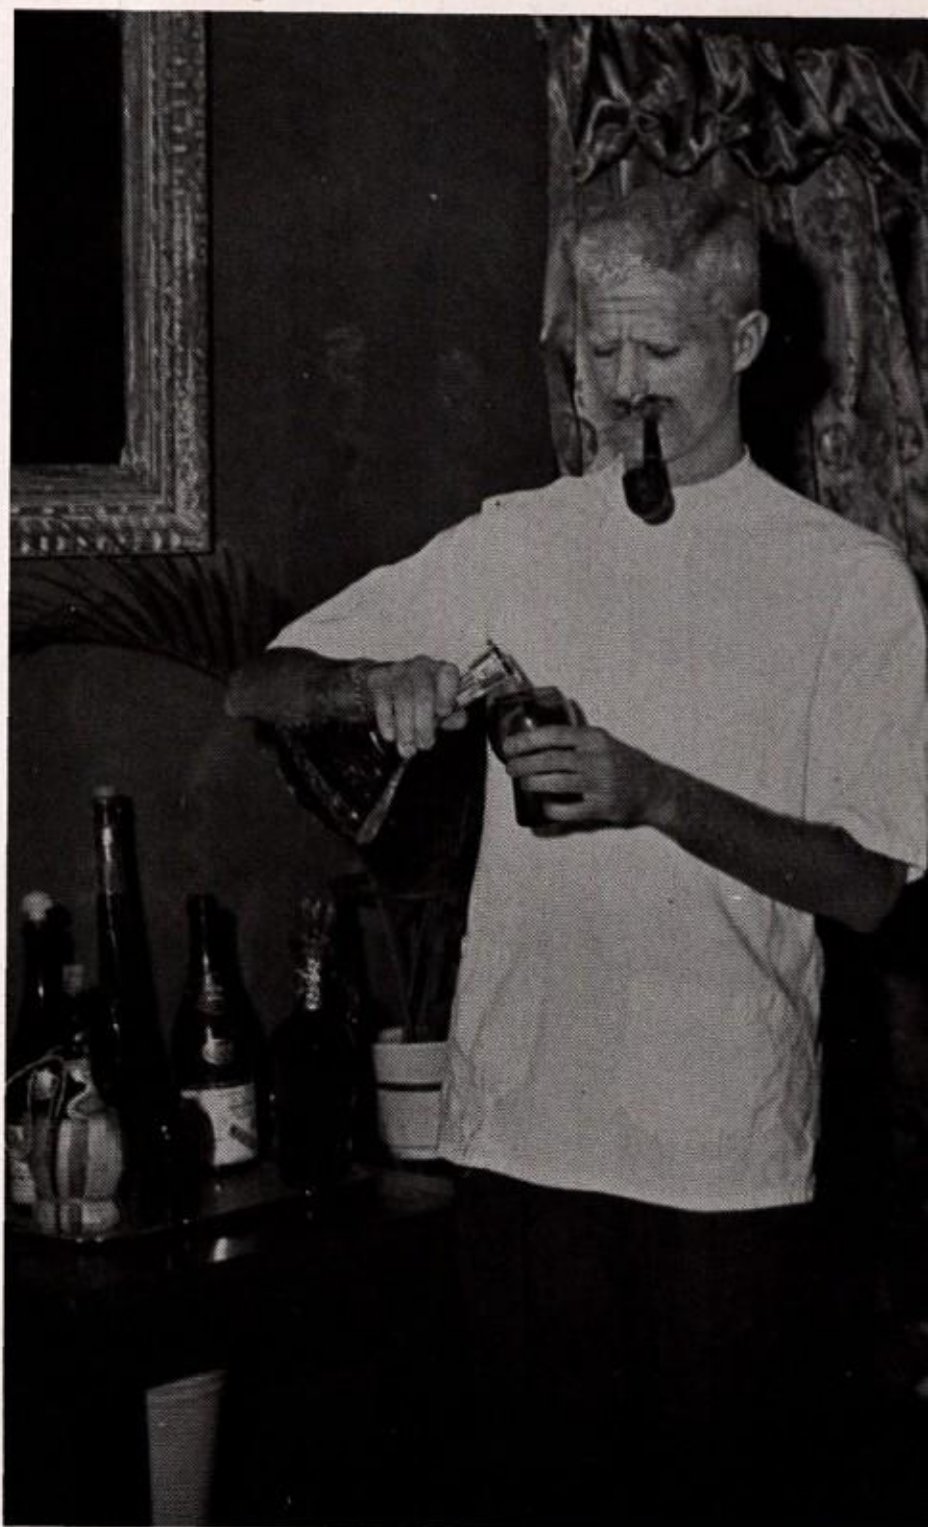

The living room of Dr. Seward sets the stage for Dracula, the Cat, records the horrifying proceedings with glaring eyes.

Over one-hundred Seniors participated in the inauguration of this year's Boss For A Day Program by attending a banquet at the Saxony Hotel. A talk by Senator Harry Kane highlighted this meeting between employers and prospective employees. The selected Senior "Bosses" spent a day with businessmen who acquainted them with office procedures and sought to interest them in joining the business world. As in previous years, the annual Boss For A Day Program, while promoting student interest in business, also served to further co-operation between the community and the school.

Linda Evans, aided by Linda Kosterich, handles in-coming orders at Burdine's.

Sheila Sheeger displays her secretarial know-how to her boss.

assemblies

School memories include those of our many and varied assemblies. This year we met Charlton Heston, a vibrant health fadist, and representatives from General Motors. Pep rallies bolstered school spirit with rousing cries from our Cheerleaders; special assemblies gave students needed vocational advice. These extra experiences enlightened Beach High students throughout the year.

A smile glimmers on Charlton Heston's face as he takes stock of his enormous audience.

Mr. Katz lauds the energetic efforts of the student body during the Lend-A-Hand assembly.

As a prelude to a pep rally, the "big" boys of the Typhoon basketball team are introduced.

After the General Motors assembly, students examine a turbine demonstrated by the company representative.

"Sure, Mr. Jensen," agrees Steve Klein, "but if Ady and I plagiarize from a lot of authors, it's called research."

Barbara Oka warbles "Love and Marriage."

To enchant Lynda Kaplan, Jerry Berlin taps out "I'll Buy That Dream."

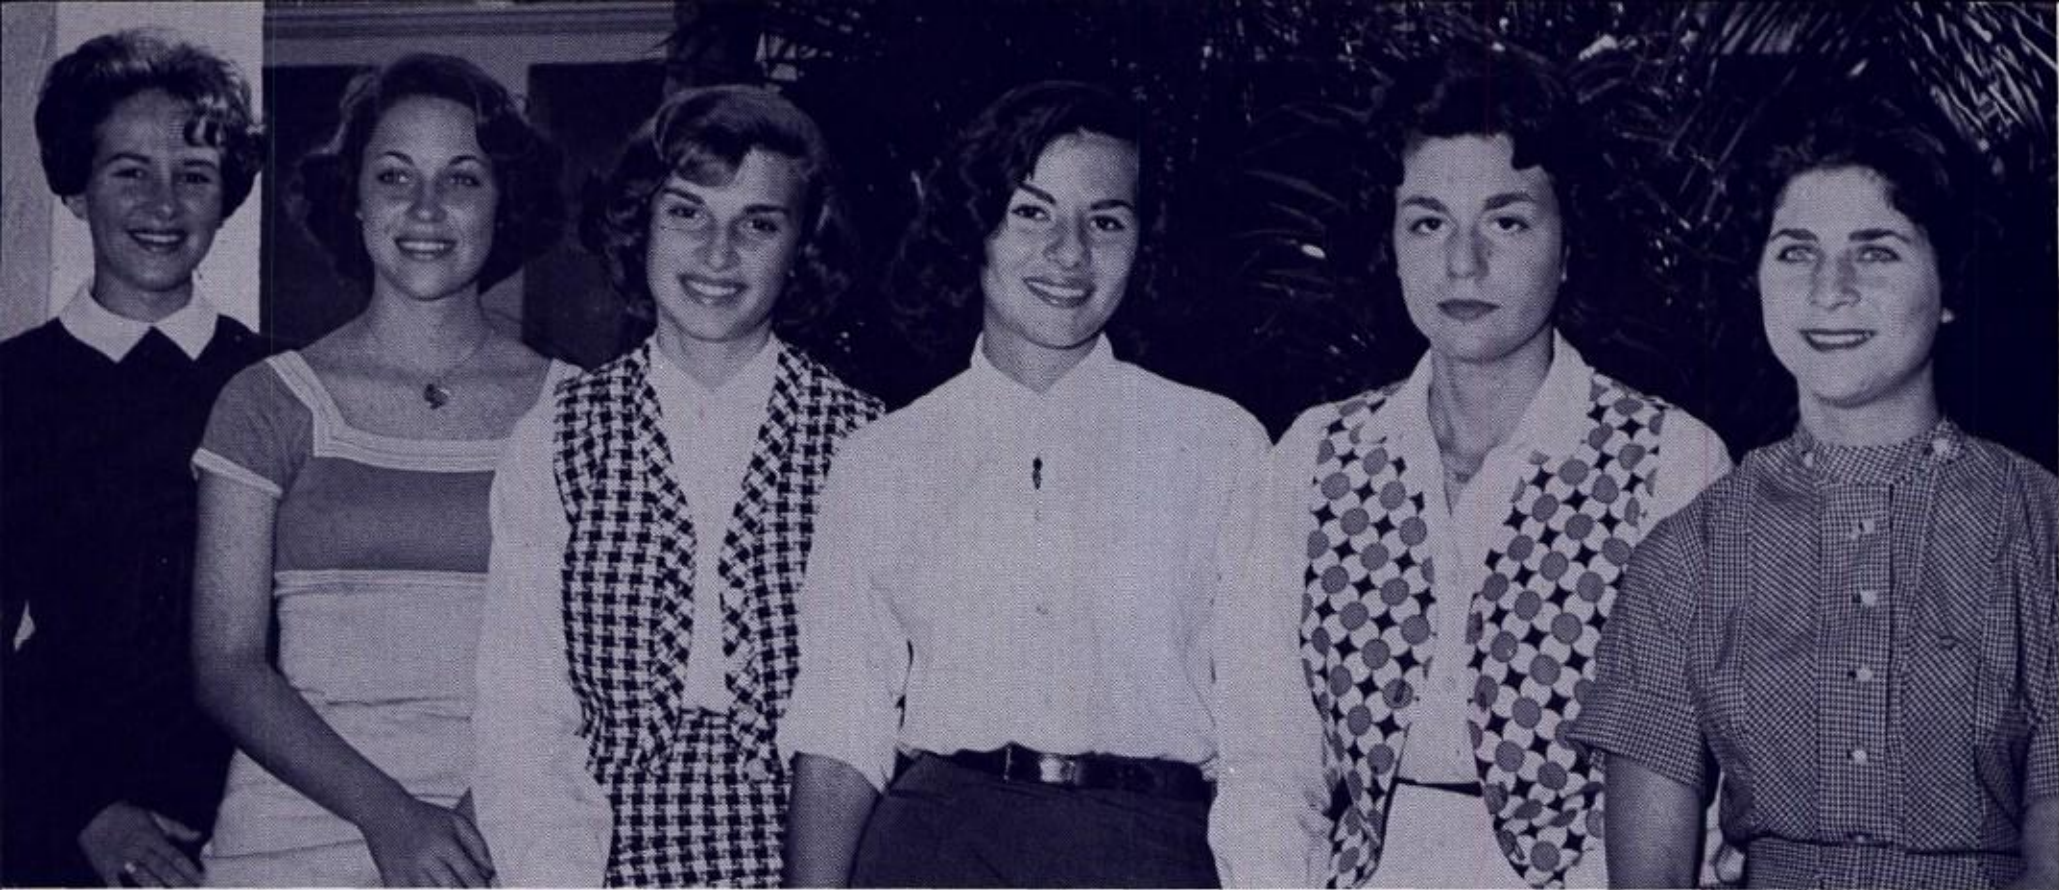

Eve Salzman charms the audience with delightful lyrics of a favorite melody from the "King and I."

n capers

With the theme of dreams, the Crown 'n Capers portion of Coronation commenced. Etherealities, pinnacles of utmost pleasure, and escapes from secular worries, entertained her Majesty and her subjects. Childhood fantasies, dreams of "Love and Marriage," and visions of patriotic devotion were revealed through song and dance. Cast, audience, and court enjoyed the entertaining excursion through dreamland.

The rendition of "The Wizard of Oz" highlights the program. Adinah Stadlan, an adorable Dorothy, dances with Flo Routh, Marcia Haas, and Nan Goodman.

Some of our lovely candidates include Ronnie Cohen, Micki Feinstein, Eileen Nash, Linda Morris, Elaine Chausky, and Bonnie Moses.

Prospective candidates chatter nervously and view each other before their presentation to the school.

Miami Beach High School's annual Lend-a-Hand Assembly was the culmination of the excitement which engrossed all of us the week before the Christmas recess.

Bleep . . . bleep . . . bleep the Martians have landed at Beach High!! The skits in Frolics '60 were "out of this world." The characters ranged from cowboys to geisha girls; the setting from Mars to Dreamsville. Beatniks, bears, Romans, Amazons, and French Can-Can girls—all participated in the laughter-filled weekend show of March 19 and 20. Beta's "I Enjoy Being a Girl" was the winning effort and Junior Exchange's "Three Bears" won second place. However, the teacher's skit, "Maharajah Madness," topped the hilarity.

Barry Richard and Warren Spiller are certainly enjoying themselves!!!

This eagerly anticipated affair is the service club member's only reward for hours of grueling labor. On March 12, at the Empress hotel, couples swayed to soft music, imbibed enticing refreshments, and enjoyed an entertaining floor show. The climax of this exciting evening was the introduction of the Sweethearts by club presidents.

Club Sweethearts and presidents prove to be excellent Terpsichorians.

Amorous couples prefer that dreamy, slow rhythm.

But these boppers really feel that cool beat.

"I'm cold, Queen, I'm cold, I've gambled my shoe away!" laments the King, Neal Sonnett.

The wrecking-crew boss, Tony Pearl, warns the cave-dwellers that they must leave.

"But wait, Duke, don't disturb her, she needs her rest," cautions the Girl, Ruth Kaplan, to Matt Gold.

"Tote that barge and lift the Bale," smirks Stuart Kimmel as he and Mike Dundee rehearse.

the cave dwellers

A queen, a king, an ex-prize fighter, a timid girl are the Cavedwellers. The cave—it's a deserted stage in a condemned tenement building. The drama lies in the lives of these forlorn beings. This is the Senior Class Play of 1960, The Cavedwellers, by William Saroyan, presented March 18 and 19, in the Miami Beach High School Auditorium. This play, one of Saroyan's best, revealed a realistic picture of life and the living. Few will forget this excellent representation of talent presented by the Senior Class of 1960.

"But I love the boy, I don't love the man," entreats Ruth Kaplan as the Girl.

"Yassuh," drawls Mike Peyton, Jamie, in reply to Keith Kashuk, the Father's query.

Our student council, an affiliate of the National and Florida Associations of Student Councils, is the most active and diverse organization in school. New students find aid in adjusting to Beach High through the Council's orientation services. Throughout the year they sponsor a variety of social affairs. Other projects are the presentation of devotionals over the public address system, and programs for honor roll students. In addition to managing all student elections and assemblies, the organization prepares activity cards for each student. This year's Blast-off project was an enterprising campaign for Spirit Week. In fact, our Student Council is a mirror for all student activities and opinions.

The Typhoon staff works industriously all year to produce the school's most anticipated publication. In spite of the sponsor, the yearbook develops. The editor, better known as the slave driver, organizes all work; the plagiarist writes copy; the club editor procrastinates; the artist sits on the layouts; the photo-co-ordinators and photographers feud; the sports editor does nothing; the assistants are nuisances; and the business staff embezzles. In general, the wastebaskets are filled with everything.

The Embryo was founded in 1946 as a magazine for the literary achievements of the student body. Since that time the reproduction of the magazine has changed from mimeographing to printing, and the circulation has increased from approximately three hundred to fifteen hundred people. The format has improved by the inclusion of photographs and a greater variety of literature such as editorials, book reviews, and feature articles.

Our National Forensic League chapter participates actively in many interscholastic contests. The efforts of its members have not gone unrewarded. The group has won five consecutive state championships in debate, numerous awards in extemporaneous speaking and oratory, and recognition as the best overall forensic group in the state of Florida in seven of the last eight years. Any student may become a member by earning points during participation in competitive speaking.

Miss Barbara Biggart
Latin Club Sweetheart

There are two Latin Clubs in our school. Like the French and Spanish Clubs, the general Latin Club is made up of officers elected in each Latin class to unify these language classes. Sodalitas Latina is the Latin Club which participates in many school activities. Through its membership in the Junior Classical League, Sodalitas Latina supports a program of bringing classical culture to Beach High by sponsoring Latin Week. The club's participation in Frolics each year is eagerly anticipated by all its members.

athletics

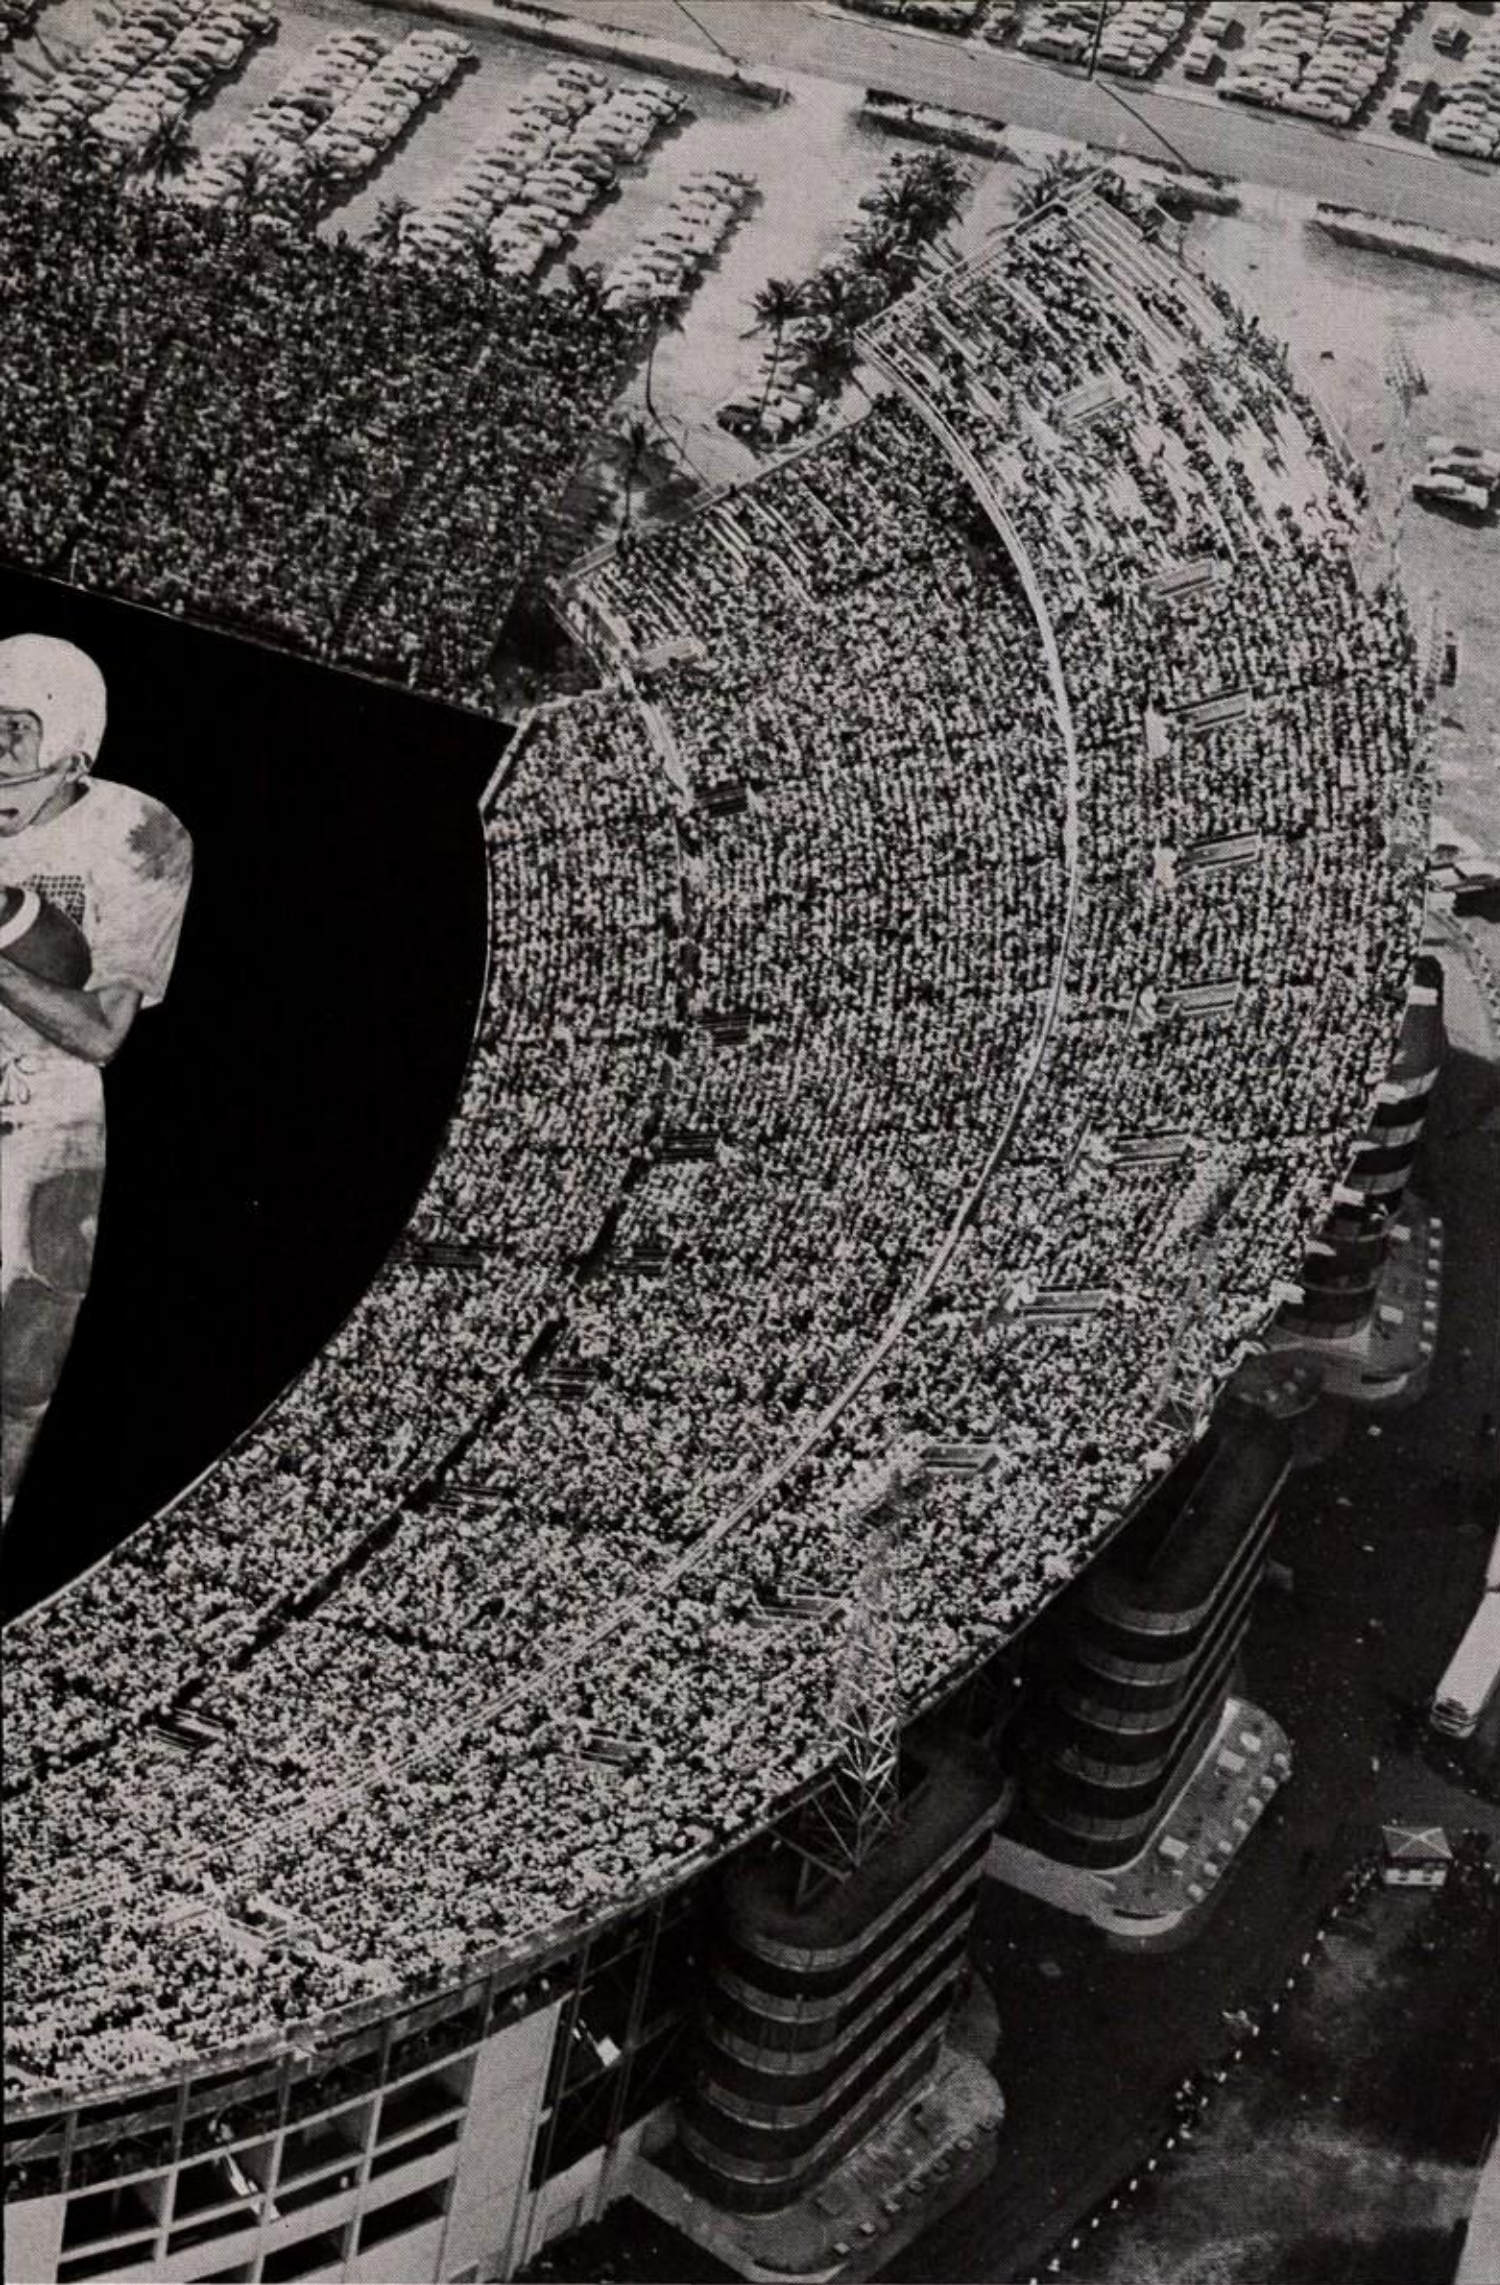

September, 1959, heralded in the anticipated athletic program for the year. Talented athletes turned out for tryouts. Avid sports fans planned for perfect attendance and the cheerleaders perfected their cheers as the season began . . .

Football was somewhat of a disappointment to TY-PHOON fans this season, however, our boys rallied toward the close of the season to win three of the remaining four games in the famous "Blaze of Glory."

Basketball proved to be a completely different story. Our towering cagers proved to be almost impenetrable as they swept to an excellent record that includes the Gold Coast Conference championship and the best record in the city.

Our other teams also witnessed improved years. Unlike last year, our track, tennis, golf, and swimming teams all experienced fine seasons. However, our baseball team did not meet their expectations.

1959-60 was truly a great year for Beach. It was a year in which victory and remarkable improvements became almost synonymous with Beach, and finally it was a great year for sportsmanship. Our athletics became well known for sportsmanlike victories and graceful defeats.

late typhoon surge nets glory after disappointing grid season

On November 28, the Typhoon football team ended a grid season that displayed everything from extreme disappointment to even more extreme bliss.

Commencing with a contest against Southwest High School on September 18, the Tys began their exciting, though unrewarding season. The Eagles defeated Beach 32-13, but not before Bob Consolo astounded the spectators by lunging close to glory in scoring on a 100 yard kickoff return in the game's opening moments.

Subsequent to three disappointing and uneventful games against Key West 45-13, South Broward 34-6, and South Dade 13-6, Beach journeyed across the Bay to meet Christopher Columbus in a game that was destined to turn the tide for the scrappy Typhoon eleven. The Tys played a courageous game and managed to produce a 13-13 tie, a difficult task with half of the starting team watching from the sidelines with injuries.

The following week the Typhoons played one of their best games of the year despite losing to a much larger Curley team, 20-12. Bob Consolo managed another shot towards fame by returning the opening kickoff 80 yards for a spectacular touchdown.

Seven days later the Tys began their blaze of glory by "Vanquishing the Vikings" of Norland 22-7 with the most astonishing play noted throughout the year. The play featured a Norm Ros-kin to Mike Silow pass good for a sensational 87 yard touchdown on a fake punt.

Behind the wonderfully effective running of Jim Dooley and Mel Olman, Beach demolished the Panthers of Palmetto, 13-6. However, this was only the second third of their fabulous streak.

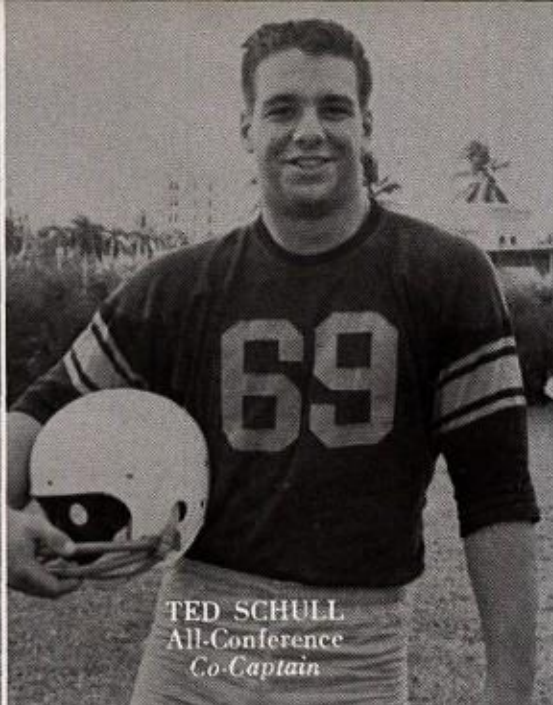

The Hialeah football field provided the scene of action for Beach fans the following week. Making three magnificent goal line stands, the Ty Gridders upset the Thoroughbreds, 6-0. The game itself provided excellent entertainment for admirers of sterling defense. Typhoon Captain Ted Schull blazed a path to celestial bearing by recovering a Hialeah fumble, resulting in the winning score.

However, the ecstasy of victory does not stretch into infinity. Fate chose to end the Typhoon paragon of pleasure in West Palm Beach only four nights later. Unfortunate as it was, the Wildcats caught our heroes on the short end of a 27-6 decision.

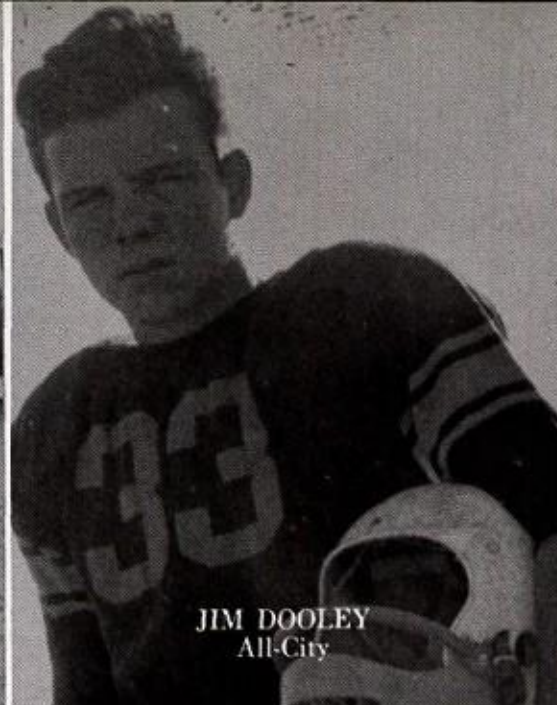

Football is an ironic game. Jokes concerning the team's 3-6-1 record prevailed during the grid months. Yet, few of us will ever forget the wonderful heroic exploits of such players as Ted Schull, Bob Consolo, Jim Dooley, Harvey Swickle, Bob Goldberg, Mike Silow, and Mel Olman, to mention only a few. The starring moments of long passes, extravagant runs and magnificent defense have come and gone.

towering typhoon cagers reach championship form in great season

With a Gold Coast Conference Championship and a number two seeding in the District Tournament, the Miami Beach High basketball team draws the curtain on one of its most successful campaigns in history. The final tabulation of the team's regular season record shows 20 victories over 3 defeats for an over-all percentage of .869. Included in their victories was a convincing 51-46 defeat of the taller, more experienced Stranahan team for conference laurels.

The Ty's opened their season on December 11 with a rout against St. Patrick's at the Shamrock Gym. After the Christmas recess, Beach won their first big victory of the season by defeating Miami Jackson, 59-52. The following week they encountered the Miami High Stingarees. Although the Typhoons garnered an early lead, the height and experience of the invaders finally prevailed to turn back the stubborn Beach five. Then the Beach quintet entered a seven game winning streak. Included in these were four against Gold Coast Conference foes which helped boost the Ty's permanently into the conference lead. The streak was bought abruptly to a halt when the Typhoons again were defeated by a home-standing Miami High. Three consecutive victories followed; Beach was upset by an inspired squad of Hialeah Thoroughbreds, 70-69 in a memorable game decided by a free throw awarded after the game. The Typhoons finished their regular season riding the crest of a 9 game winning streak.

Leading the team in scoring was junior center Stu Marcus, who led in total points scored, most field goals, free throws, and rebounds. At forward was 6' 4" Harvey Heller. Harvey teamed with Marcus to form a rebounding duo second to none in the city. Harvey also averaged 10 points per game and led the team to the free throw line.

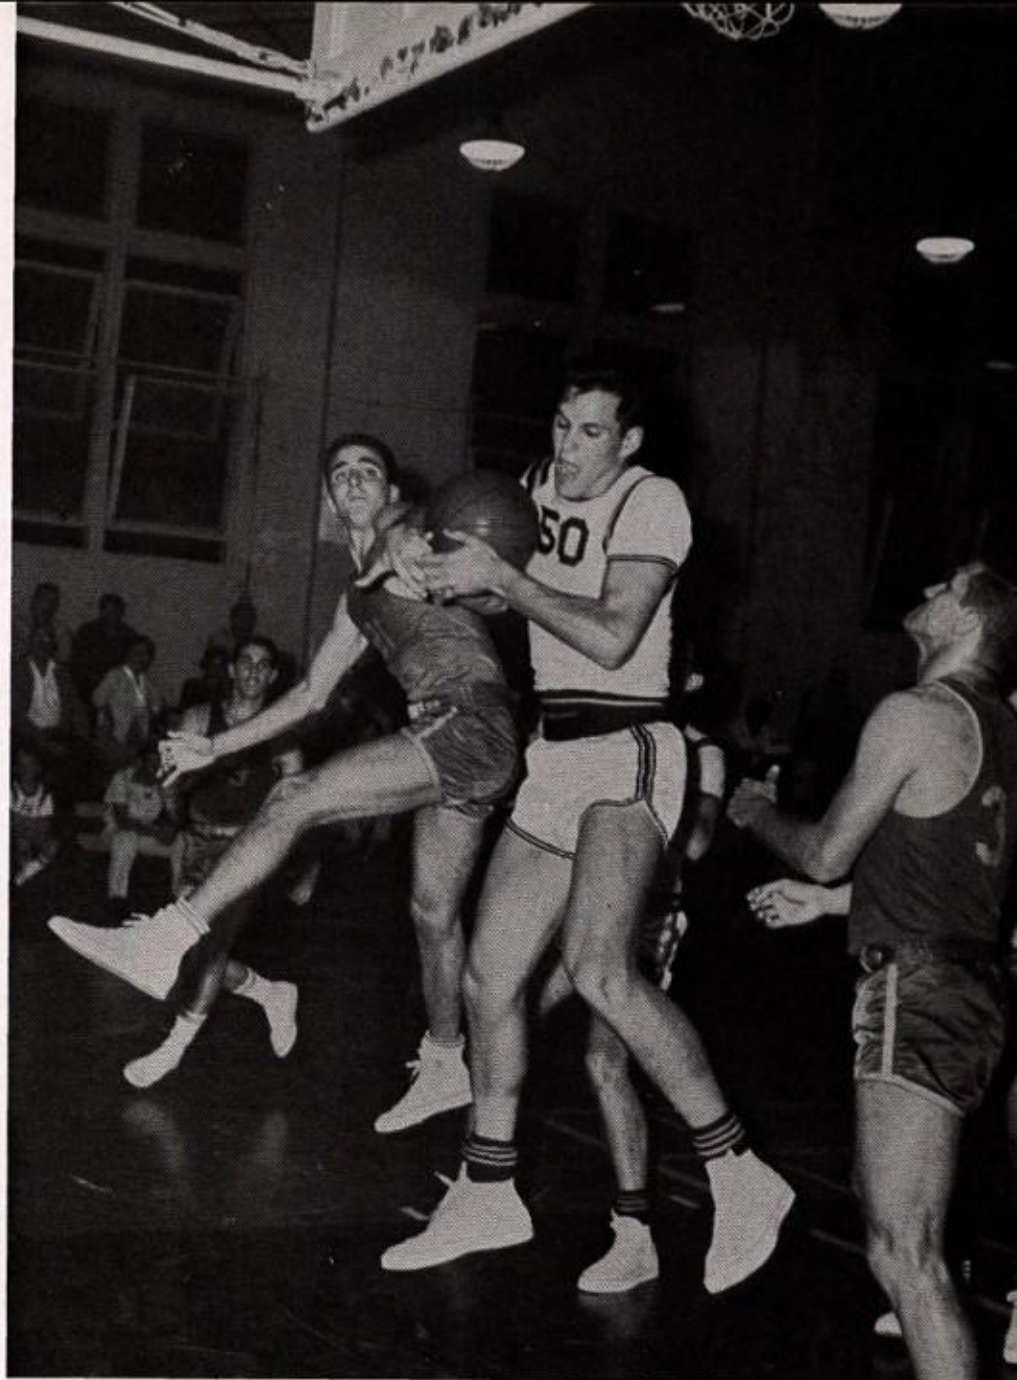

Leading the Typhoon offense was crafty ballhandler Norm Roskin. An all Gold Coast Conference selection last year, Norm was a effective feeder and a fine all-around playmaker. In addition, Roskin averaged 8 points a game.

Sounding out the potent Beach offense was Barney Salzberg. Salzberg reached his peak in the South Dade game and remained high scorer for the last four games. Other notables on the squad were Mark Wickman, Alan Hirsh, and Bob Teper.

For one of his best seasons since starting to coach at Beach, Mr. Fieldson and his assistant, Paul Green, are to be commended.

Smooth ball handling and hard driving nets two for Norm.

A highlight for Ty fans was Stu Marcus's hard fought battles under the boards.

South Dade's Donkley watches in amazement as Barney steals the ball.

Bob Teper goes high over his St. Pat's defenders to score one of his many baskets of the night.

woody woodward sparks last second rally as gables tops beach 63-62

March 3 turned out to be a dark day for the Typhoons. That night a highly confident Beach High basketball team traveled to the Miami High Gymnasium to face the fast moving Cavaliers from Coral Gables High in the opening round of the District 8AA basketball tournament.

The game itself was nip and tuck all the way with the Cavaliers pulling ahead in the final 30 seconds. Gables ace Woody Woodward sank a jump shot and then proceeded to pump in two free throws to give the Cavs a 63-60 lead. Barney Salzberg's desperation shot with only five seconds remaining served only to close the score for the heartbroken Typhoon supporters.

ty cindermen sprint in top form

Beach thinclads enjoyed one of their finest seasons in history this year behind the fine running and field play of many sophomores and juniors. Beginning with a decisive victory over Hialeah, Curley, and Palmetto, the Ty's flexed their muscles in sprints, distance, vault, and weight events.

In the 100 and 200 yard dashes, Sandy Strull and Allen Jarrett led the team with times that were reminiscent of Barry Levinson.

In the 440, 880, and Mile Runs, Sandy Strull, Efrem Lieber, and Gary Edwards combined speed and endurance to give Beach a strong threat in distance runs. Neil Fligner joined the team in late March to bring news to the Ty's in the form of wins in short distance races.

Stu Marcus and Howie Hirschfield were at their best throwing the discus, and Bob Miller, Howie Freidin, and Ted Schull were strong in the shot put event.

improved baseballers battle rough diamond schedule

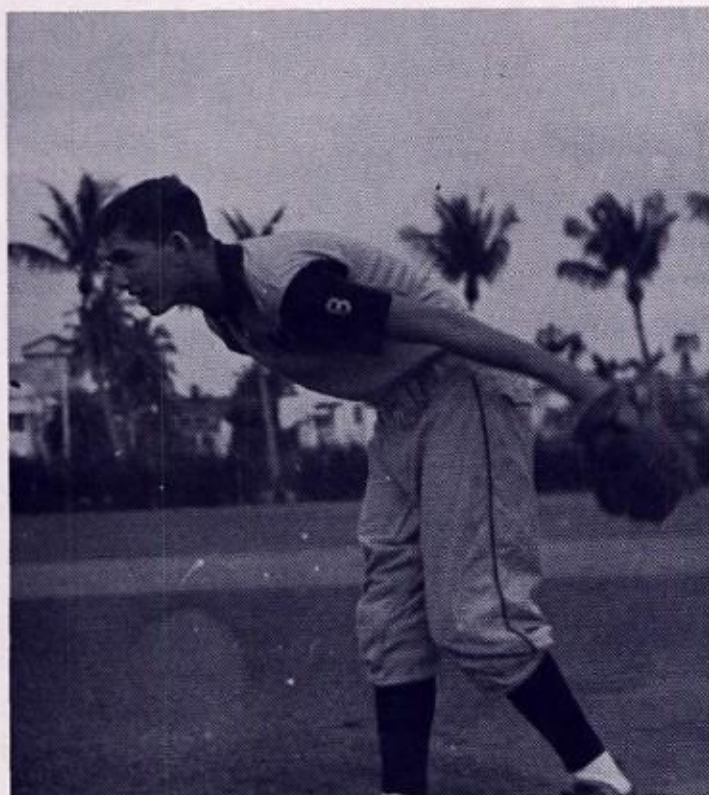

Playing one of the hardest schedules in the area, the Typhoon baseball team finished the season with an enviable record. The Ty nine played sixteen games of exciting, entertaining baseball.

The Ty diamondmen, under the direction of Coach W. D. Cole produced an electrifying brand of baseball, pulling off upsets on many occasions. In the first game of the season, they beat one of the top teams in the State, Miami Edison, 4-2, announcing trouble to come to other baseball teams in the area. Not expected to be a threat the Ty's showed great improvement as the season progressed. Several of the boys were given post season recognition by local newspapers.

The starting team included Bob Consolo (first base), Ronnie Stein (second base), Bob Becker (third base), Steve Polisar (shortstop), Lenny Lewis (left field), Richard Spector (right field), Stan Yanowitz (center field) and Ted Schull (catcher). Typhoon pitchers were Fred Rapchik, Richard Hersh, Juan Valdez and Norm Roskin. Other boys who sparkled for the Black and Gold were Danny Appleruth and Billy Matz.

Seth Bramson's butterfly proved a strong point for the Ty's.

The Ty Mentor—ROBERT STEARNS

The 1960 Beach High swim team may go down in the record books as the finest swim squad in this school's history. Coach Robert Stearns faced the unenviable task of building a representative team out of seven lettermen and a group of inexperienced boys. The team faced a murderous schedule that included Miami Edison, Miami High, Coral Gables, Ransow, Pinecrest, Palmetto, Norland, Pompano, Southwest, McArthur, South Broward, and the University of Miami freshmen. As the season progressed, the Typhoons became known as a spirited and hard working team. They were recognized by authorities as the dark horse in the Gold Coast Conference and a powerful threat to even the strongest teams in the state.

Taking their last splash for the Typhoons were seven seniors. They included freestylers, John Bell and Jay Wapnick; backstroker, Allen Sobel; breaststrokers, Bucky Pieck and Izzy Newman; relay men, Jerry Greenfield and Stan Bittman. These seniors helped pull the team through the "rough spots."

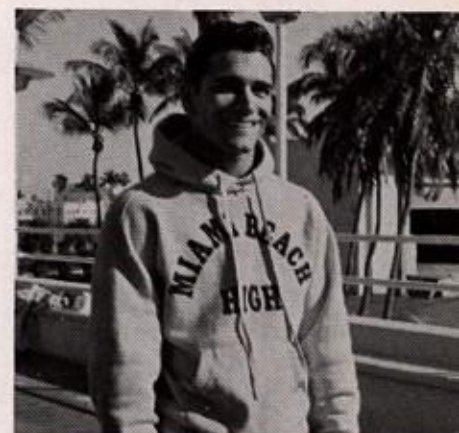

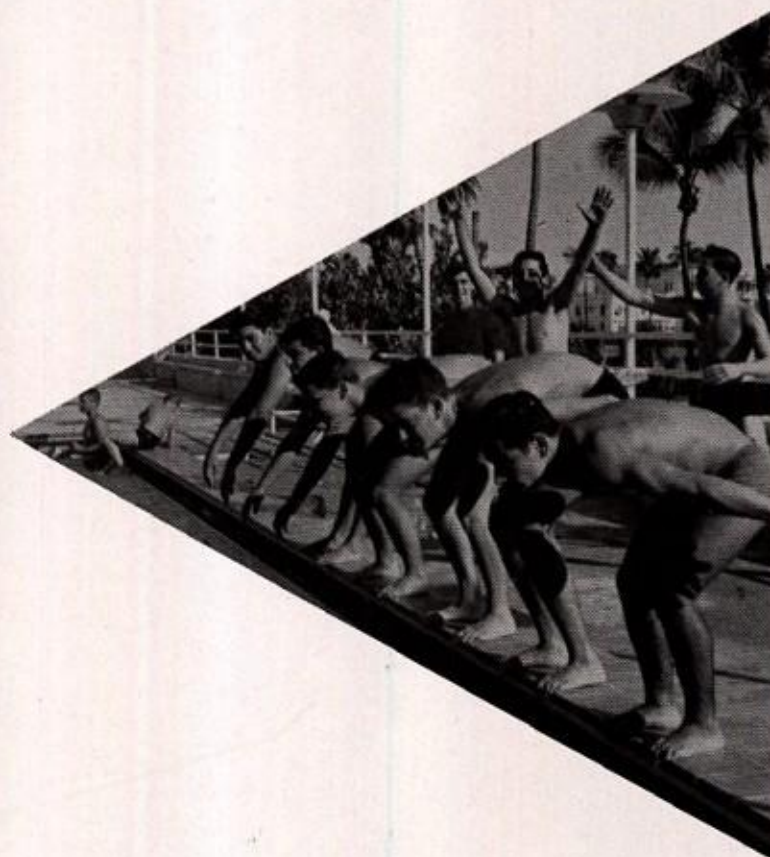

Beach High swimmers go wild with joy following their upset win over Miami Edison.

Coach Stearns hopes for future teams will depend on freestylers, Elliot Cohen, Buzz Tenenbaum, Richard Cowen, Steve Lang, Barry Saifman and Eddie Phillips; butterflyers, Seth Bramson and Mike Sheldon; backstrokers, Ricky Neross and Jamie Barkin; divers, Jerry Chaves, Art Blank, and Fred Kaye. Other boys participating were Tony Grimaldi, Nathan Prichason, and Charlie Solomon. In addition Mr. Stearns hopes for a new array of swimmers for next season.

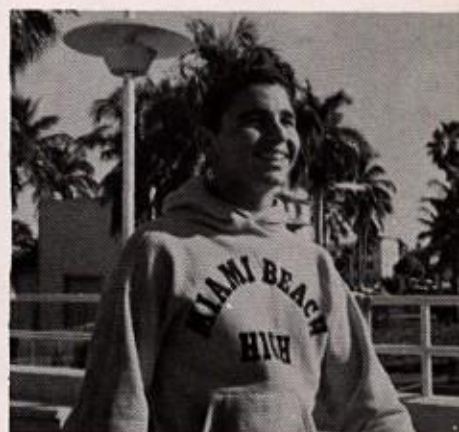

Summing up a highly successful year Coach Stearns was quoted as saying, "The tremendous progress made by this year's team surprised many people, but none more than myself. I hate to see the graduating boys go because they were such a great help to the squad. It's going to be a hard job to replace them."

Patti Paskow and Ralph Grieco formed a strong mixed doubles team.

beach tennis teams complete great season

Fielding an all veteran squad loaded with depth, Coach Charles Friend produced one of the finest teams in the area this season. At the mid-season point, both the boys' and the girls' squads were undefeated. Few of the Ty's opponents were able to escape a 7-0 shutout.

Pacing the Typhoon female netters were Rita Rubinoff, Cheryl Silver, Elaine Rubin, Shelley Finger, and Cookie Schwartz. These five girls were strong in singles play, and the combination of Rubinoff and Schwartz was unbeatable in doubles action.

The improved boys' tennis team was led by Captain Ralph Grieco, Robbie Klein, and Bob Schull. Player ineligibilities hurt the squad somewhat, but the boys won most of the key matches against such formidable opponents as South Dade, Key West, Fort Lauderdale, and North Miami.

Typhoon Captain Ralph Grieco displays his form.

Graduates of the Class of 1960

Ardmore Studio extends its congratulations to you and wishes you success in your future endeavors. Each succeeding year the "Typhoon" staff seems to improve and helps us to make the work of providing the great number of pictures which appear in the "Typhoon" a bit easier. The staff of Ardmore Studio, now in its 20th year on Miami Beach, takes pride in the production of quality photographs. We have photographed many of you from infancy to this important event and hope to continue to do so into the future.

 Well Bless Wipfer - it's all over. Being in the same Psyche class has brought about our friendship. Jim - you are a pretty good guy and I would be proud to tell anyone that I know you. If it hadn't been for you I would have been up 5-11-60. Good luck, but I hope not goodly. Thanks a lot for your special to me. I really appreciate it. Barry Jovett we thank...

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR DEGUTZ of ARDMORE STUDIO for their generosity, cooperation, and patience in helping us produce the 1960 TYPHOON.

the UNDERGRADUATE STAFF MEMBERS for their slave labor, menial tasks, and willingness to fill the waste paper baskets.

RITA KANNER, MARILYN SEIDNER, DAVA GARFUNKEL, VERA ROTHFELD, DENNIS LASKIN, JOYCE STERN, RHODA DEUTSCHMAN, LYN WARMBRUN, STEVE MACKAUF, JANE GROSCHIN—GOOD LUCK!

MR. WRIGHT of TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY for not lowering the boom when we were late on deadlines.

MISS CURTO, MISS DAVIS, and MRS. GRIFFITH for censoring our errors.

THE BEACHCOMBER for typewriters, chairs, paper, and even some ideas.

MIKE SILOW for going above and beyond the call of duty.

JOEL PROYECT, BILLY ABEL, and CHUCK KARASICK for their lively sports lingo.

STEVE RAYMOND for being on-the-call photographer.

the FACULTY for their cooperation and the pads of blue passes.

the JANITORS for emptying the full wastebaskets.

MR. CHARLES DRUMMOND for his inspiration.

THE MIAMI BEACH SUN for filling the holes.

JERRY GREENFIELD, RICHARD SOLOMON, and JUNE ALBERT for their efforts.

JONATHON SWIFT for the idea.

D. F. and P. T. for giving us a shoulder to cry on.

OUR FAMILIES for giving us the car, accepting the low report cards, and feeding the sponsor and ourselves irregularly.

MR. KATZ for going out of his way to help us.

A BEACH NEBBISH for making it all possible!!!

Jim —
 It's been great having you home since you came back from your tour these past 3 years. Remember Saturdays. Best of luck in college —
 Rep. Banks

Dear Jimmy,
 The short time known you has been something special to me. Starting a school in my senior year was made less difficult because of your "How's Loonie?"! Best of luck and success in all your endeavors. Fondly,
 Marjorie Nadler

Pls. Take care of "Loonie" if he comes up to Kahonkakin.

No more pencils, no more books, no more papers...
 It's been great!
 Good luck in college

well elmer;
we've spent a whole year in C. friend's class and all; can say is we're lucky to be here today.
it's been nice
knowing you.
the best to you

Dear Jimmy,
It's been a long, hard struggle, but we all pulled through! (we hope).
But our futures are ahead of us and its up to us to make the most of them. From what I know about you, you are bound to go far.
I'm only sorry that I didn't get to know you better. I think that there are great things in store for you, if you take advantage of what you have.
God bless you!
all the love and luck in the world,
Michelle M.

James -
It's been great being your friend this year and year previous to our SENIOR year.
I will always remember the great times we had in Government and Home Room.

Dear Jim,
at has been fun being in the same Psy.
class this year,
but I guess I will never forget the way we passed this class.
I wish you the best and please have a great life. Love, courage, & Be good.
Love

Dear Jim,
I have enjoyed our short but pleasant friendship.
I'm sorry it didn't begin sooner, for you are really a great kid. Good luck & lots of success always.

Dear Jimmy,
He really seen from knowing you. You've added a great deal of happiness and joy to my senior year.
I wish you all of the best life has to offer.
Love,
Maryn Fenger

Dear Elmer,
Knowing you and your name has been quite an experience. In three years we've been through a lot together. Remember Satans, Pledging, LTD. In all seriousness
I feel you are a very nice kid who will definitely succeed. Keep that same "sick" smile on your face.
P.S. "ya know your mother - -
sincerely,
Barry F.

 Jim:
Farewell to a successful year of skipping and cheating
See you in jail
Love
Rahney

Well Jim - last step in it the
and we have gone high school of it together. Starting back in Satans (10th grade) may success Good Luck and follow you.

Living "Boy"
We all were bullbaited shot together and we had a lot of laughs but now it time to say your the best bullbaiter of them all. But I lack and all that sign because I know you deserve it.
Sincerely
Sam Edwards

King James III,
The past three years have been the most important in our lives up till now. When I look toward the future, I would like to wish you success and happiness and good luck in college.

Dear James Elmer,
This year has certainly been filled with many joys & stupid memories. (Thanks to you) Psychology will never be the same & I sincerely wish you the best of luck -

James Elmer Ellsworth Stone III

It has been my pleasure to have known you these past three years, and I am happy to call you a friend. Good luck in all your future endeavors, and where did you ever get that fushlugginer name -

Bill Abel '60

Jim,
If all my audiences are as sharp, happy, and have a good sense of humor as you do then I have nothing to worry about. ~~Keep~~ Keep smiling (Mr. Atlas)

Jim -
It has been a real pleasure sharing a table in biology class with you. I'd like you to know that I appreciate all the help you've given me in that class. Best of luck in my and all of your future endeavors.

Neil Rollnick

Dear Jamey,
I'll always remember our four hour talks over the telephone every night. (and Jamey's unusual philosophy on life).
I want to wish you all the luck and success in whatever you strive to do.
Just a word of advice.
Be a little bit more optimistic in your thinking. (Think back to our talks). Love
Michelle '60
